LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

When the greeting "Peace be with you" is sincerely offered to a person, it can resonate very deep within, bringing comfort and reassurance. When someone possesses the power to bring peace, it brings us to a place of safety and fills us with joy. The resurrected Christ has this power. God can open our minds so that we can more fully understand the meaning of Sacred Scripture and God's compassionate, loving tender, and untiring embrace constantly present and offered to people throughout history. Without the anchor of truth that only God can provide, we can easily become startled and terrified at the sight of what life brings us. Being open to God's offer of peace, we can turn away from old habits and short-sighted vision and experience the gladness and joy of God's gift. Only then can what is wounded and broken be mended and reconciliation achieved. We are the resurrection witnesses called to proclaim the Good News.

John & Joan Condon

Just registered online at St. Peter's and we are so glad they did!

Welcome to the family, John and Joan!

Everyone should be registered and it's so easy to do.

Visit StPeterCatholicChurch.org and follow the instructions.

Or call the parish office at 815-675-2288 during regular business hours.

We regret to inform parishioners the Deacon Greg has a terrible disease where he can't stop telling airport jokes. His doctor says that it is terminal.

Do Children Need To Receive The Sacrament Of Reconciliation Before Their First Communion?

For centuries the Catholic Church has taught that a person needs to be in a state of grace (free from mortal sins) in order to worthily receive the Eucharist. To that end, Catholics should make an effort to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation any time they recognize the need for the sacrament (and in keeping with the precept of the Church that asks that we celebrate this sacrament at least once each year).

In the case of children preparing for their First Communion, the Code of Canon Law is very clear that they should also celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation before receiving the Eucharist for the first time: "It is the responsibility, in the first place, of parents and those who take the place of parents as well as of the pastor to see that children who have reached the age of reason are correctly prepared and are nourished by the divine food as early as possible, preceded by sacramental confession" (Canon 914).

While some might question the significance of the Sacrament of Reconciliation – especially in the case of children who might not fully understand the reality of sin or the meaning of the sacrament itself – a child's "First Confession" can be a wonderful time for families to reflect together on the quality of their relationships, how they put their faith into practice, and, when it is possible, to celebrate the sacrament as a family. In the end, the celebration of these two sacraments marks important moments in the spiritual journeys of children and we hope their "First Confession" and "First Communion" help instill in them a love of the sacraments of the Church.

"Wrong is wrong even if everyone is doing it; right is right even if no one is doing it."

~ William Penn

Coming Back to God!

Sometimes, people think that confession is when you go to God and say, "God, I promise that I'll be good. Please give me another chance." But that is the wrong perspective.

God is the one who initiates confession. God is the one who moves first. God is the one who invites us first. Whenever we come to the sacrament of Reconciliation, our confession is a response to God, who is saying, "Please come to me."

When you come to confession, you are responding to God. You are saying yes to God's question, "Will you give Me another chance to love you? Will you give Me another chance to give My mercy? Will you give Me another chance to make you new?" That is what happens with every confession.

Confession is simply coming before God in our weakness. To be open to His mercy and honest in our weakness, we need to turn away from our sins.

~ Fr. Mike Schmitz

Dear Parishioners of St. Peter's

1st Way is very thankful for your additional gift to us. You initially gave $2,431 to our work through your Lenten giving. Then we received another check of $1,858, which brings the grand total of your gift to us as $4,289! Your donations help our moms choose life for their babies.

We are blessed to be able to do the work we do and it would not be possible without support such as yours. When young women come to us with an unplanned pregnancy we provide them with love, hope, and assistance.

Thank you for being part of our mission.

If you have not already return your Lenten Alms Bank to the parish office, please do so at your earliest convenience!

1st Way could really use your donations!

A Deacon's son who had just gotten his driving permit asked his dad if they could discuss the use of the car. The deacon said to his son, "I'll make a deal with you. You bring your grades up, study your Bible regularly, and get your haircut, and we'll talk about it."

A month later, the boy came back and again asked to discuss the use of the family car. The deacon replied, "Son, I've been real proud of you. You've brought your grades up and you've studied your Bible diligently. But you never got your hair cut."

You know, Dad, I've been thinking about that," the young man replied. "Samson had long hair, Moses and Noah probably had long hair. All the pictures of Jesus show Him with long hair..."

"Yes," the deacon interrupted, "and they walked everywhere they went!"
