COVID UPDATE

Unfortunately, McHenry County is now listed as an area where the Covid-19 virus is highly transmissible. We respectfully ask all worshippers to follow the guidelines put in place to lessen the risk of possibly spreading the contagion and offer a little more peace of mind for everyone coming to Mass. Vaccinated brothers and sisters may sit on the left side of the church, where masks and social distancing are not required at this time. However, should you still prefer wearing a mask and keeping a respectable distance between yourself and others, you will be more comfortable on the right side of the church which is reserved for brothers and sisters who are more susceptible and still required to wear a mask and be 6 feet apart.

“One of the most beautiful boasts of our municipal jurisprudence is that Christianity is a part of the Common Law. There has never been a period in which the Common Law did not recognize Christianity as lying at its foundation. I verily believe Christianity necessary to the support of civil society.”

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

What makes a person wise and intelligent? Certainly it is not the ability to memorize facts or minute details about a situation. What makes a person wise and intelligent is when their words and actions harmoniously unite and produce virtue. A person can know many facts and even do the right actions but still have a grave flaw in their character. We sometimes want to delude ourselves into thinking that as long as we are “doing” everything correctly, we are automatically in right relationship with all. Such is sadly not the case in the kingdom of God. We are called not to be just hearers of the Word, but doers as well. That means getting to the heart of what laws and rituals are meant to signify and nurture. If we do not bring the actions home, where they belong, and allow them to speak of the goodness, mercy, compassion, and love of God, then they are simply empty, worthless gestures. Welcome the Word that has been planted within you so that you can be a truly wise and intelligent disciple of Jesus Christ.

Help Is Needed in Haiti

Support Relief & Rebuilding Efforts

This weekend’s voluntary special collection is being taken to support Catholic Relief Services and Catholic Charities USA. Together with local agencies, they are responding to immediate emergency needs and aiding in the long-term rebuilding and recovery efforts after the earthquake in Haiti and Tropical Storm Grace.

Parish life has been impacted by the ongoing pandemic, and our ability to raise funds is more challenging this year than with past emergency collections. However, we must never waver in our care for those who are most in need. May Our Lady of Perpetual Help, patroness of Haiti, inspire us to dig deeper into our pockets in order to help provide for the needs of her children and the Church. Our Haitian brothers and sisters are grateful for any assistance we can give In Their Time Of Great Need.

Here's your opportunity!

Jeff Cavins one of the most revered modern day biblical scholars will lead us through the mystery in an 11 week course titled Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come. Have you read the Book of Revelation and wondered what its really all about and what all the mysterious imagery means?

Do you understand what our Church teaches about the second coming of Christ and the Last Judgment?

Here's your chance, as Jeff Cavins unpacks the Book of Revelation and gives answers to the question that we all have had after reading the Book of Revelations.

Our Congratulations and best wishes go to Tom and Heather (Barney) Schwartz!

They were married on August 21st and
Evie is the most beautiful flower girl ever!

My friend has never heard about Christ and I want to share the Gospel with her but I'm afraid of how she might react. How Do I Share My Faith?

There are a lot of ways to bring up the topic of religion, without being judgmental or pushy. Begin by asking what her thoughts are about religion, or what her experience was growing up. Finding common ground is often easier than you think, because the questions and problems we have about God, the presence of evil, our purpose in life, and our relationship with God are universal concerns.

Why are you afraid? If you do not want to insult or offend someone, don't be pushy or judgmental. If you are uncertain about how to explain your own faith, do a little reading or practice with a friend. If you measure success only by this person converting, focus your attention more on beginning the conversation, not on bringing it to a perfect close! Faith is a journey of many acts of belief, many discussions about God, and many choices about how we practice what we preach. In some we will have great success; in others we will need forgiveness and perseverance. The most important thing to keep in mind is that the Holy Spirit is always at work and our most humble efforts can bear great fruit. Have faith in God because He has faith in you!

Our Sanctuary Lamp burns from August 29th through September 11th for + Scholle & Sompel Families. May this light which reminds us of Jesus' True Presence in the Sanctuary Welcome them into eternal peace.

An elderly man went to his doctor and said, 'Doc, I think I'm getting senile. Several times lately, I have forgotten to zip up.'
'That's not senility,' replied the doctor. 'Senility is when you forget to zip down.'

Wife: "Do you want dinner?"
Husband: "Sure! What are my choices?"
Wife: "Yes or No."

"I hope it didn't disrupt you too badly when my husband walked out during your homily, Pastor," an embarrassed visitor said as she was leaving church. "I must admit that it was a little distressing," the preacher replied. "But I'm still glad you both could join us today." "Please don't take it personally, Pastor," she insisted. "Ron has been walking in his sleep most of his life!"

The answer is simple. Look at your life. See the hours in your day? See your spouse, your kids, your grandkids? See the house they live in, the money in your wallet, the food in your fridge, the breath in your lungs?

Calling it all your own, refusing to share any of it – that's robbery. Giving it all back to the One who gave it to you – that's justice.

~ Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ~

Give It All Back

Pop culture has given us a unique idea of the term justice. Justice, we often think, is about taking. Taking what's owned. Taking revenge. Taking what we deserve. This worldview tends to make mincemeat of our Catholic social teachings. Seeking the good of the poor, a call to community and participation, solidarity – on the face of it, in a society where everything must be earned and we are encouraged to hoard for ourselves whatever success we can achieve, these principles look a lot like highway robbery.

But when you remember the presence of an omnipotent all-loving and all-merciful God, it turns our gunslinging sense of justice on its head. For how does justice inhabit the same universe as a God who is so quick to give and indeed to forgive?

Well, very easily, when we remember Who exactly is the source of every good and perfect thing in this world. There is no law that cannot be traced back to the Word. And the Word saves our souls.

Is that justice? No, that is a gift. It is the reckless, indulgent gift of a father whose love is greater than His anger. What is justice in the Biblical sense?
