INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God shows up in unexpected ways!

Just when we think we have God's agenda figured out, another surprise comes. Expecting to find God only in some places hinders us from finding Him everywhere.

Who would have thought that a young boy's few loaves and fishes would feed thousands of people?

The disciples were probably just as amazed as everyone else when this feast appeared before them. Sometimes, we find it difficult to believe that God can do amazing things with something small and simple.

Yet, grasping this truth is really at the heart of understanding the power of the Eucharist. Having the Body and Blood of Christ made present for us is an amazing wonder. Actually being fed and nourished by that gift is another. Now being able to become what we have eaten, God can do tremendous things with the simple, humble gifts of our lives. All we have to do is realize that God dwells within us. When we do, then everyone we encounter and everything we do has the power to become a sacramental moment. When done with great love even the smallest gesture can be multiplied exponentially. Now, that's amazing!

On Monday, July 19th, Henry Kaht finally met His Lord and received the Peace he so desired. In Christian charity, let us pray for Henry's bride of 65 years, MaryAnne, and their sons and grandchildren.

Eternal rest grant unto Henry O Lord, and let Your perpetual light shine upon him. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

"If so many people believe in heaven and hell while also believing that this life will determine which destination will be theirs, why don't we see more evidence of that belief?"

"While we are zealously performing the duties of good citizens and soldiers, we certainly ought not to be inattentive to the higher duties of religion. To the distinguished character of Patriot, it should be our highest glory to add the more distinguished character of Christian."

Love One Another, Especially Those Who Are Different

In a time of widening political and cultural divides, it can be easy to lose sight of the dignity of people different from ourselves. Yet, as Catholic Christians, we know that Jesus asks that we see everyone as family.

"Love one another with brotherly affection; outdo one another in showing honor" (Romans 12:10).

Treat others with kindness, not because they are kind, but because you are. It's easy to be kind to those we love and respect. It's critical to be kind to people we don't like or don't know. Kindness is best offered when nothing is expected in return.

Don't build yourself up by making others look small. No one is impressed by a bully. Treat all of God's children with honor, love and respect.

Practice empathy. People's reactions tend to reflect their circumstances. Avoid judging and instead offer the consideration you'd like to receive.

Meet in person instead of online. Social media makes it easy to stay in touch but it's also the quickest way to damage relationships. Choose to meet in person when possible. In person or online, we must be wise in the words we use.

Forgive those who have hurt you, help those who need you. Treat all people – including yourself – with love and compassion. When we treat people the way we want to be treated, life will instantly get better.

Needed - Eucharistic Ministers to Homebound St. Peter's is looking for dependable individuals who attend Sunday Mass regularly, to be Extraordinary Ministers to the Homebound.

Can you spare just a few hours of your time on Sunday mornings after the 9:00 am Mass at least once a month? Have you ever been told you have a listening ear and a good heart? If this is you, we need you, to help bring our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and His Good News to our parishioners who are homebound. It is such a wonderful gift to spend time listening to their stories and bringing the parish news to those who have been separated by illness. Will you consider serving our Lord by visiting the sick and homebound? If so, please contact Fr. Joe at 815-675-2288 ext. 201.

REVELATION The Kingdom Yet to Come

Are you familiar with the Book of Revelation?

Now is your chance to learn about this fascinating book which is about a lot more than a vision of the "end times." Learn what the mysterious figures and images mean. Explore what our Catholic Church teaches about the second coming of Christ and the Last Judgment. Learn how God enters into a heavenly and mystical marriage with the Church every time we celebrate Mass!

This new adult bible study begins Wednesday, August 25th at 9:00 am and will last for 11 weeks. Time is flying by, so don't delay! Call the parish office at 815-675-2288 and reserve your spot today!

Attention Leisure Village Residents

If you live in Leisure Village and attend Mass faithfully at St. Peter's, would you be willing to bring one of your neighbors, to Church, with you? She also lives in the Village and would greatly appreciate a ride to either the 4 o'clock Mass on Saturday or the 11 am Mass on Sunday. And Christ would be so pleased, too! If willing and able to help, please call the parish office and Marcey will be eager to give you additional information.

Our Sanctuary Lamp burns from July 18th through July 31st for + Scholle & Sompel Families. May this light which reminds us of Jesus' True Presence in the Sanctuary Welcome them into eternal peace.

A woman in a casino at Monte Carlo was losing at the roulette wheel. When she was down to her last $20, she asked the gentleman next to her for a good number. "Why don't you play your age?" he suggested.

The woman agreed, then put her money on the table. The next thing the man saw was the woman fainting and falling to the floor! He rushed right over!

"Did she win?" he asked.

"No," replied the attendant.

"She put $20 on 33 and 46 won."

It's All In The Basket

St. Therese of Lisieux made a point of going the extra mile in kindness towards those people who really got under her skin. It was part of her own brand of Everyday Stewardship – thanking God for all His creation, even the parts with which, in her own humanness, she struggled to cope.

I think about this a lot when I challenge myself to give thanks for things that bother me and people who challenge me. When I do this, I envision Christ giving thanks over those insufficient loaves. How many of us would see that paltry little basket and kick a rock in frustration because we can't feed all our people? "You didn't give me enough, Lord! You didn't give me enough patience, enough money, enough creativity, enough stamina, to be a good steward. If you had given me more, I could also give more!"

In those moments of despair, we need to take a good look at the life God has given us. We need to look at the trials and the challenges and the shortcomings. The hopes that didn't pan out, the disappointments that keep cropping up. Somewhere therein lies what we need to be the steward that God asks us to be, just as St. Therese's own stewardship was defined by the people she simply couldn't stand.

God does not give us all we want. He does not give us all we ask for. He does us one better: He gives us all we need. It's all in the basket.
