WE WILL NEVER FORGET

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 2021
24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Twenty-Fourth
Sunday in Ordinary Time
Sunday, September 12th at 9:00 a.m.
Will be Live-Streamed at
StPeterCatholicChurch.org

COVID UPDATE

We respectfully ask all worshippers to follow the new guidelines put in place to lessen the risk of possibly spreading the contagion and offer a little more peace of mind for everyone coming to Mass.

In compliance with Governor Prizker's most recent Executive Order, Bishop Malloy has mandated that we will now be wearing masks over our noses and mouths when inside our churches, schools or any diocesan facility. Thank you for your cooperation!

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Rest in the presence of God simply because God is God and you are you. This is all that is necessary. Out of this relationship will come inspiration, understanding, courage, constancy, truth, and virtues of all kind. We will find ourselves knowing the true meaning of things and developing a depth of insight that is not found following purely human venues. It is God who inspires and opens human hearts to see truth and beauty. In God, we understand all of our relationships with a richer appreciation and come to know who Jesus, who speaks of God's kingdom, really is. The trust that is fostered from resting with the Divine One allows us to see that God's ways are not our ways. There is something bigger going on in this picture of life. It is something mystical and magical that seeks to surprise us at every turn. It is not for us to cling to this world and its limitations. Our adventure is to dream bigger and brighter, realizing that it is even in suffering that the radiant light of the dawn will come. God's ways allow for our paths to be rocky, challenging, difficult, and even crippling at times. Purely human eyes cannot understand the 'why' of such experiences. The eyes and mind of God, however, reveal and detail a journey that ends in glorious resurrection joy. When we lose our axis and become too human in our thinking, Jesus rebukes us and gently reminds us how to see.

It's All In The Basket

By Tracy Earl Welliver

St. Therese of Lisieux made a point of going the extra mile in kindness towards those people who really got under her skin. It was part of her own brand of Everyday Stewardship — thanking God for all His creation, even the parts with which, in her own humanness, she struggled to cope.

I think about this a lot when I challenge myself to give thanks for things that bother me and people who challenge me. When I do this, I envision Christ giving thanks over those insufficient loaves. How many of us would see that paltry little basket and kick a rock in frustration because we can't feed all our people? "You didn't give me enough, Lord! You didn't give enough patience, enough money, enough creativity, enough stamina to be a good steward. If you had given me more, I could also give more!

In those moments of despair, we need to take a good look at the life God has given us. We need to look at the trials and the challenges and the shortcomings. The hopes that didn't pan out, the disappointments that keep cropping up. Somewhere therein lies what we need to be the steward God asks us to be, just as St. Therese's own stewardship was defined by the people she simply couldn't stand. God does not give us all we want. He does not give us all we ask for. He does us one better: He gives us all we need. It's all in the basket.

"And can the liberties of a nation be thought secure when we have removed their only firm basis, a conviction in the minds of the people that these liberties are of the gift of God? That they are not to be violated but with His wrath? Indeed, I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just; that His justice cannot sleep forever."

~ Thomas Jefferson ~

Come
ADORE
YOUR GOD!

Saturdays 5:15 p.m. – Sundays 6:45 a.m.

One evening, a man sent his wife this text: “Hi Babe. I’m at the bar with some of my buddies. Please try and wash all my dirty clothes and make sure my favorite dinner is ready by the time I get home.” Quickly, he sent another text and it read, “Babe, I forgot to tell you that I got a raise at work and at the end of the month, I’m getting you a new car!” It only took her one second to text him back, “Oh my gosh! Really?” The husband replied, “No. I just wanted to make sure you got my first message.”

Jokes

Patrick went to a revival meeting at his church and listened carefully to the sermon. After a while, the minister invited everyone with needs to come forward and be prayed over. Patrick got in line and when it was his turn, the minister asked, “Pat, what do you want me to pray about?” Patrick said, “Sir, I need you to pray for my hearing.” The minister proceeded to put one finger in Pat’s ear and the other hand on his head and prayed for a while. He removed his hand and asked, “Pat, how’s your hearing now?” Patrick said, “I don’t know pastor. It’s not until next Monday.”

Can You Walk The Walk?

I’ve met and talked with enough people to feel confident that if you polled 100 fallen-away Catholics about why they didn’t want anything to do with the Church, the term “accountability” would pop up in almost all of their answers.

And to be fair, a lack of accountability isn’t just a Catholic problem. Talking the talk but not walking the walk has been a shortcoming handed down throughout the ages, across all creeds and nationalities.

Loving our neighbor, welcoming the stranger, clothing the naked, feeding the poor – it all sounds fantastic, especially when we’re the ones saying it. But the doing – well, that’s a different story, isn’t it? We would do well to remember that Christ calls one of His best friends “Satan” when Peter tries to convince Jesus to stray from His destiny.

Have you ever been called Satan by one of your good buddies? I’ll bet it’s not a great feeling. But think about what Peter was doing. He had just said, “You are the Christ.” And now, mere moments later, he’s saying: “Don’t say these things. Don’t say you’re going to suffer. Don’t say you’ll be killed.” He was telling Christ to squander what the Lord had given Him. He was telling him that having faith was fine, but being faithful? It’s just a little too hard. God has a destiny for you, too, and He’s asking you to be open to it. Maybe it’s not in your comfort zone. Maybe you don’t think you can do it. Lord, give us faith – but help us, also to do the work.

Recently, a funeral director asked a bagpiper if he would play at a graveside service for a homeless man. He had no family or friends, so the service was to be at a pauper's cemetery in the Nova Scotia back country. The man wasn't familiar with the backwoods and got lost, and being a typical man, he didn't stop for directions.

He arrived an hour late and the funeral director had evidently gone and the hearse was nowhere in sight. There were only the diggers and crew left and they were eating lunch. He felt terrible and apologized to the men for being late. He looked down into the hole and saw that the vault lid was already in place. Not knowing what else he could do, he started to play.

The workers put down their lunches and began to gather around. The bagpiper played out his heart and soul for this man who had no family or friends. And as he played "Amazing Grace," the workers began to cry. Everyone wept together. When he finished, he packed up his bagpipes and walked toward his car. Though his head hung low, his heart was full.

As he opened his car door, he heard one of the workers say, "I've never experienced anything like that before, and I've been putting in septic tanks for over twenty years."
