All are welcome to join him from 6:00 pm - 7:30 pm.

Mask Wearing Guidelines!

We respectfully ask all worshippers to follow the guidelines put in place to lessen the risk of possibly spreading the contagion and offer a little more peace of mind for everyone coming to Mass.

In compliance with Governor Prizker's most recent Executive Order, Bishop Malloy has mandated that we ALL will now be wearing masks over our noses and mouths when inside our churches, schools or any diocesan facility. Thank you for your cooperation!

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

What does it mean to be God's servant? In essence, it means being willing to call the world back to its childlike innocence, showing all that a joy-filled playfulness has a place in life. The servant of God serves to foster the Kingdom of God. God's Kingdom is not a sterile, unhappy, strict, and rigid reality. It is quite the opposite. It is a kingdom devoid of jealousy and selfish ambition where peace, gentleness, mercy, and good works abound. To be a servant of this kingdom means that selfish ambition must be set aside so that others can be first, and justice pursued at all cost. The prayer of this kind of servant is not focused on self-advancement or need. Rather, the servant's prayer seeks to detach from self-concern in order to be used by God. In this way, we who are servants can be inspired, guided, empowered, and led by God. We can then be used to lay the cornerstones of the kingdom: faith, hope, and love. It is upon these that God's firm dwelling is built. Accepting this call may place us last in the world's eyes but first in God's.

We are so pleased to welcome Anthony Janus and his daughter, Chloe to our St. Peter's family!

Anthony used the online registration form and it is so easy to use! Visit StPeterCatholicChurch.org and simply click on the Newcomer tab located at the top.

MAY WE NEVER FORGET

A Memorial Service was held, last Saturday, at the Spring Grove Fire Station. It began at 7:46 am, the same time when Ft.11 was crashed into the North Tower of the WTC. We remember the 2,977 victims who were murdered in that cowardly attack, as well as the courageous first responders who risked their own lives to save others. Pictured Left to Right: Fire Chief Paul Klicker, Msgr. Joe and Police Chief Michael Niedzwiecki. Traditionally, chaplains are always shorter than chiefs.

Meet St. Peter's RCIA Candidates for 2021!

Row 1: Robert Love, Deneen Miller, Evie Schwartz and Karyn Leali (Instructor)

Woman of Inspiration Banquet

This Sunday afternoon, September 19th, Msgr. Joe will be presenting to Bishop Malloy and the McHenry Deanery Council of Catholic Woman of Inspiration Award! Last year, parishioners chose Nettie Toms as our Woman of Inspiration for 2020! But due to restrictions and necessary precautions, the annual Awards Banquet, at Holy Apostles in McHenry, was postponed until now.

However, Fr. Joe is expecting the banquet to be twice as much fun because we are also honoring this year's winner! After all the votes were counted, parishioners chose Jacqui Wold as St. Peter's Woman of Inspiration for 2021!

We congratulate Nettie and Jacqui and express our heartfelt gratitude for everything they do for us! Their husbands and children and our parish family couldn't be more proud!

— 7 TIPS FOR YOUR — CONVERSION PROCESS

- 1 The people in your life didn't change, you did
The only difference is that you walk with the Lord now.
- 2 You can't be holy overnight
Holiness is a lifetime process. Keep going!
- 3 You may feel tempted to give up
Don't get discouraged and don't try to silence your conscience.
- 4 Remember that faith is not a feeling
Let your goal be to love God at all times, even when it gets hard.
- 5 Keep praying and learning
The spirit must be trained. Set some real resolutions.
- 6 Talk about God
Bring God everywhere you go, with your words and actions.
- 7 And remember...you are Catholic everywhere
Be a Catholic outside your group or movement, the world needs you!

Two old Jewish men, Sid and Abe, are sitting in a Mexican restaurant. Sid asked Abe, “Do you know if any people of our ancestry were ever born and raised in Mexico?” Abe replies, “I don’t know. Let’s ask our waiter.” When the waiter returned, Abe asked, “Are there any Mexican Jews?” The waiter says, “I don’t know senior. I ask the cook.” He returns from the kitchen after a few minutes and says, “No, senior, the cook say ‘no Mexican Jews.’” Abe isn’t satisfied and asked, “Are you absolutely sure?” The waiter, realizing he is dealing with “Gringos” replies, “I check once again, senior,” and goes back into the kitchen. While the waiter is away, Sid says, “I find it hard to believe that there are no Jews in Mexico. Our people are scattered everywhere!” The waiter returns and says, “Senior, the head cook, Manuel, says there is no Mexican Jews.” “Are you certain?” Abe asked again. “I just can’t believe there are no Mexicans Jews.” “Senior, I ask EVERYONE!” replied the exasperated waiter. “All we have is Orange Jews, Grape Jews, Prune Jews, Tomato Jews and Apple Jews, but no Mexican Jews!”

The View From The Back Of The Line

Have you known that person? The one who leaves every person they encounter feeling a little more blessed for having met them? They’re the friend you can count on when nothing is going well. They’re the one who’s always “doing” for others. They’re never gossiping or sniping or complaining.

We wonder how they do it, how they have it in them. We’re a little envious, even if we don’t let ourselves acknowledge it.

That, folks is what the view is like from the front of the line, gazing at those suckers in the way back and wondering why they’re smiling so much.

We’ve all been at the front of a line and felt no shame about it. We show up early, we put in the time and the legwork, and we “earn” whatever it is we came for – sports tickets, the latest Apple product, whatever. That’s how it works here on Earth, where the fastest win the race, the fittest survive and the first shall be first, always.

It’s exactly why stewardship is such a tall order. Stewardship calls us to play by the rules of another kingdom – one where the richest have the least amount in their bank accounts and the happiest don’t seem to have anything to show for it, at least materially.

If you have a person in your life who always seems happy “doing” for others, it’s because by a boatload of God’s grace, they play by the rules of the other place. Watch and take notes – and don’t be afraid to join them at the back of the line.

A little silver-haired lady calls her neighbor and says, "Please come over here and help me. I have a killer jigsaw puzzle, and I can't figure out how to get started."

The neighbor asks, "What is it supposed to be when it's finished?" The little silver-haired woman says, "According to the picture on the box, it's a rooster."

Her neighbor decides to go over and help with the puzzle. She lets him in and shows him where she has the puzzle spread all over the table. He studies the pieces for a moment and then looks at the box. Turning toward her, he says, "First of all, no matter what we do, we're not going to be able to assemble these pieces into anything resembling a rooster." He takes her hand and says, "Secondly, I want you to relax. Let's have a nice cup of tea." And then he said with a deep sigh, "let's put all the Corn Flakes back in the box."
