WHAT IS HOLY WATER AND HOW DO I EXPLAIN THE REASON THAT IT IS PLACED AT THE ENTRANCES OF CHURCHES TO MY NON-CATHOLIC FRIENDS?

Holy water is a sacramental, a reminder of the life of the Church expressed and celebrated through the sacraments. God's grace is mediated through word and gesture (the outward signs). This comes to us through Jesus (instituted by Christ) as he entrusts to the Church His saving mission (to give grace). In turn the Church, through the sacraments, shares that grace and mission with us.

On Ash Wednesday, we receive ashes on our foreheads to remind us of our origins, humbly created from the dust. But by blessing ourselves with Holy Water, we are reminded of our destiny! We are baptized sons and daughters of God. This is also a call to conversion, to live more fully our baptismal call to live as disciples of Jesus. We see Holy Water whenever we renew our baptismal promises. This will occur during the Easter Liturgy as well, reminding us that we are indeed on a journey of faith and renewed in Christ. Blessing ourselves with Holy Water reminds us that we are baptized into a community of faith, and always in need of turning from sin and toward God. Holy Water is a visible sign of our baptism!

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Shout for joy! When was the last time you ever felt like doing that? Fear, uncertainty, pressure, negativity, disappointment, and myriad of other human experiences can rob us of joy. We can never predict what life will bring. As unsettling as that can often seem, life's unpredictability is also the very thing that allows it to be exciting and adventuresome! We know that life can be difficult, and it is unrealistic to expect it to be otherwise. God never promised an easy road. But, when a person truly falls in love with God and discovers the peacefulness and assurance of God's presence, then a depth of understanding will be brought to everything they do and experience. Nothing will be able to rob them of joy! When we realize that God, the King of Israel, is in our midst and with us, there is no further misfortune to fear. We celebrate the beauty and wonder of God's gift of joy today as we ready ourselves, even more excitedly, for the coming of our Savior. Do not fear and do not be discouraged. There is a power and presence within us, our God, who has made us, who loves us and who will keep us. What more do we need? Rejoice!

The Well That Never Dries Up

Depending on how your mood is today, the words of Paul will hit you differently. "Rejoice always," he tells us. Well, if your football team is poised to win this weekend or next, maybe you're really feeling this vibe. But if you've got a long slog at work ahead of you this week and a to-do list that only seems to grow and never shrink, it may make you grumble. "Rejoice always? Always? When I'm tired? Cranky? When I'm sick of doing and giving?" Thanks, Paul. I'll be sure to scribble that phrase on a Post-it and stick it to my dashboard for when some entitled punk inevitably cuts me off on tomorrow's morning commute."

When we feel this way, we know it's time to head back to the well. Think of all the places in Scripture where God compares His love, His mercy, His salvation to water. And not just any water – living water, water that moves. God's strength is not a stagnant puddle sure to evaporate and disappear. It's water you can keep coming back to, it's water that never dries up.

Which is good news for us, because we never stop failing to do what we should, never stop failing to feel the joy and the compassion and the selflessness we are called to. We need a source of living water if we are going to 'rejoice always.' To be everyday stewards, we need a well that never empties.

The fountain of salvation never dries up. There is always more there for us to draw from. It's a sign of His commitment — so let us, in turn, be committed to Him.

"I'm here to tune your piano," said a man to the church pianist.

"But I never called you," the pianist replied in confusion.

"No, but quite a few church members did!" replied the man.

A young mother was visiting church at Christmastime as the guest of a neighbor. In his message, the pastor described the wise men bringing gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh to the infant Jesus. The visitor leaned over to her host and whispered, "A wise woman would have brought diapers!"

"Come to Me, all of You"

(Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska, 1485).

Jesus invites each one of us to draw near to this throne of mercy. Saint Therese of Lisieux said: "Do you realize that Jesus is there in the tabernacle expressly for you — for you alone?"

This throne of mercy is the tabernacle in each of our churches.

Ought we not draw near to this throne of grace, that we might receive from it God's mercy in time of need (Heb 4:16)? Jesus Himself encourages every one of us:

Behold, for you I have established a throne of mercy on earth—the tabernacle—and from this throne I desire to enter into your heart. I am not surrounded by a retinue or guards. You can come to me at any moment, at any time; I want to speak to you and desire to grant you grace.

A church member went to the butcher's shop one afternoon to pick up some salmon.

"I want four big ones," the man said. "Just toss them to me."

The butcher looked strangely at the man. "Can't I just wrap them up for you?"

"No," the customer replied. "If anyone from church asks me if I caught any fish today, I can truthfully tell them, 'Yes, I caught four big ones!'"

It has been claimed that the candy cane was shaped like a "J" for "Jesus" and that the red-and-white stripes represented Christ's blood and purity. The three red stripes were also said to symbolize the Holy Trinity and the hardness of the candy represented the Church's foundation on solid rock. As for the candy cane's peppermint flavor, it represented the use of hyssop, an herb referred to in the Old Testament.
