Jeanette Lutz

was ready to meet her Lord on Thursday, April 7th.

Now in Christian charity
we pray for her family and friends who miss her very much.

May she rest in peace.

Eternal rest grant unto Jeanette, O Lord, and let Your perpetual light shine upon her. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

Funeral Planning

When making funeral arrangements for a loved one, your first call should be to one of our local Funeral Directors. These wonderful professionals provide compassionate care when our families are most in need. They offer guidance and direction, making sure they take care of your every wish and detail. Discuss with them a possible date and time for your loved one's funeral. If they have no prior commitments with other grieving families and their busy schedule allows for it, they will then contact Father Joe to confirm his availability. Thank you for calling your chosen funeral director first, who will then call Fr. Joe.

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Alleluia, Christ is risen!

What a glorious and holy day. The resurrection of Christ speaks of freedom, new life, restored faith and enduring, unconditional love. The huge stone, separating death and life, has been moved, allowing God's radiant power to usher in eternal life. When we see the truth of Christ's resurrection through eyes of love, we see the fullness of timeless beauty, truth, and wonder revealed. The emptiness of the tomb is filled with the eternity of love. We have many stones and boulders blocking the path to freedom, love, and joy. They are often too big for us to move, and they cripple us. We can take a leap of faith today and believe with all our heart, mind, and soul that there is much more than can be seen by the naked eye. There is something very holy, sacred, and eternal stirring within us. We want to live forever! Christ's resurrection brings us joy and allows us to see ourselves as we are meant to be seen, as God's children destined for glory!

Below are members of the National Honor Society from Richmond Burton. They worked side-by-side with Nettie Toms, Crystal Pace, Kathy Toms and Lucie Homan to decorate the Sanctuary so beautifully for the beginning of Holy Week.
God Bless all our volunteers!

Welcome

Our Parish Family just got stronger because

Robert and Mary Baker
recently registered!

They bring a deep love for Christ and His Church and we couldn't be happier to welcome them!

you."
~ Mother Teresa

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

When the sun sets this Holy Saturday, a group of us will have gathered in front of our beautiful, little church to bless a fire. A sacred flame will ignite our towering Paschal Candle and from it, everyone attending the Easter Vigil Mass will light a single, much smaller candle, which they will be holding. Just as in years past, our darkened church will gradually become brighter with a soft, glowing light, a visible celebration of that night when Christ broke through the darkness of sin and death and rose victorious from the grave!

By the time you read this, our Paschal Candle will be standing prominently in the sanctuary where it will remain throughout the Easter Season. Whenever it's lit, it will give warmth and light, but over time, you will see the candle get shorter as the wax is consumed. That is why it is so fitting that our Easter Candle reminds us of Christ, the Light of the World, who gave His life for you and me.

I am praying mightily that Christ our Light shines upon all of us! In light of everything that is happening in our world, believe me, we have no greater hope than the power of our Lord's Resurrection. And I am praying that the hope of Resurrection moves deeply in each of our souls and strengthens our resolve to be that special light, which Christ called each of us to be.

On behalf of our parish staff, all ministry leaders and volunteers, I extend best wishes and congratulations to Deneen Miller, Lucas Wysiatko, Tom and Heather Schwartz, Alexia Spatz and Dalton Shannon who were received fully into our beautiful Catholic Church at the Vigil Mass! May theirs and everyone's Easter be grace-filled, as we continue to pray for world peace.

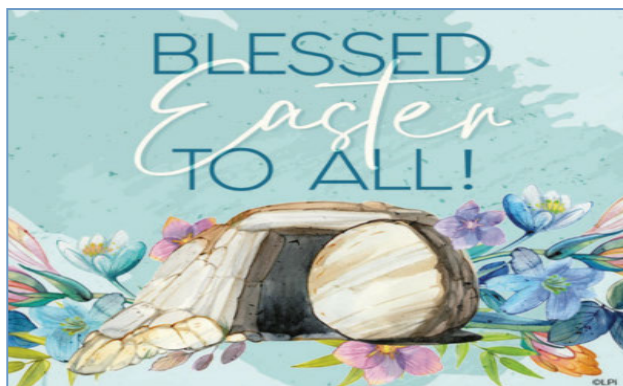

In our Risen Lord,

Father Joe

NEXT WEEK SUNDAY IS DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

WHAT IS DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY?

- † The First Sunday after Easter, The Feast of Mercy
- † Instituted by Saint John Paul II in April of 2000
- † The message of Christ's mercy was given to St. Faustina
- † Confess your sins on the 1st Saturday of the month through the Sacrament of Reconciliation
- † Receive the Holy Eucharist, worthily
- † Exposition & Holy Hour
- † Reflections and Meditations on Divine Mercy
- † Recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet
- † Most of All, Place All your Trust in Jesus!
- † A day of forgiveness for all souls who turn to Jesus' mercy especially "poor sinners"

A major motion picture on the life of a modern-day Catholic priest was released in theaters on April 13th. Hollywood actor and active Catholic, Mark Wahlberg, portrays Fr. Stuart Long from the Diocese of Helena, Montana. Father Stuart's dramatic conversion to Christ before becoming a priest led many people to Christ and the Catholic Faith. His courageous witness left a special legacy.

This film is not for the faint of heart. It contains objectionable language, violence and adult content. However, it's the hope of the producers that the redemptive story of Fr. Stu's conversion will invite viewers to faith and strengthen believers. This wonderful movie—raw, unfiltered, combative and grace-filled, witnesses to the truth that no one is ever beyond the reach of redemption. Father Stu is playing at Classic Cinemas in Fox Lake as well as Emagine in Lake Geneva.

Check theaters for times.

Our Sanctuary Lamp burns from April 10th through April 23rd for
+ Rubaszek Family

May this light which reminds us of
Jesus' True Presence in the Sanctuary
Welcome them into eternal peace.

Some race horses were staying in a stable and one of them started to boast about his track record. "In the last 15 races, I've won 8 of them!" Another horse breaks in, "Well in the last 27 races, I've won 19!" "Oh that's good, but in the last 36 races, I've won 28," says another, flicking his tail.

At this point, they notice a greyhound dog sitting against a wall and listening. "I don't mean to boast," says the greyhound, "but in my last 90 races, I've won 88 of them!" The horses were clearly amazed! "Wow!" says one, after a hushed silence, "A talking dog."

The old pastor shocked the congregation when he announced that he was retiring and moving to a drier climate. After Mass, a very distraught parishioner came to him with tears in her eyes, "Oh, Father, we are going to miss you so much. We don't want you to leave!" The kind hearted man patted her hand and said "Now, now, don't carry on. The man who takes my place, I'm sure, will be better than me."

"Yeah," she said, with a tone of disappointment in her voice, "That's what they said the last time too."

Why do Catholics display Crucifixes?

Catholics display the Crucifix because it reminds us of Jesus' sacrifice, His victory, and His love for us.

His Sacrifice: Jesus willingly sacrificed Himself for us on the Cross. At every Mass, the moment of Jesus' sacrifice is made mysteriously present again in the sacrifice of the Eucharist in an unbloody manner. The Crucifix indicates that the sacrifice of the Cross and the Mass are one sacrifice (CCC. #1545).

His Victory: The Crucifix looks like defeat but in fact, it's a sign of victory. Jesus' sacrifice reconciled us with God, reopened Heaven to us, and broke the grip of death. Jesus took on death, sin, and evil, and rose again in triumph.

His Love: "Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends" (John 15:13). The Crucifix reveals how precious we are to God. Jesus taught us that true love seeks the good of the other. Jesus put our good first. He endured the crucifixion so we can be with Him forever in Heaven.

A Ministry to Catholic Women

Magnificat Prayer Breakfast

Receive TRUTH, Rejoice!

Join us on Saturday, May 21st, for a most vital message for all Catholics today. This morning will also include a traditional style breakfast and vibrant music, lead by the excellent Dr. Mark Nimo PhD!

Susan Brinkmann, O.C.D.S., is an author and award-winning journalist and a member of the Third Order of Discalced Carmelites. She serves as the Director of Communications and New Age Research for Women of Grace and is a frequent guest on EWTN's Women of Grace television show. She is the co-founder of the Catholic Life Institute which is an educational apostolate devoted to teaching the authentic Catholic contemplative tradition. Ms. Brinkmann formerly worked as a Correspondent for the Catholic Standard & Times, the newspaper for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

For the last 10 years Ms. Brinkmann has been the Lead Researcher for Women of Grace's New Age Q&A Blog which is the largest blog of its kind in the world. The library of information now exceeds 1200 entries on everything from Acupuncture and Angels to Wicca and Yoga.

She has also authored eleven books, including The Learn to Discern Compendium: Is It Christian or New Age which has an imprimatur from the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Liguori Publications published the story of her conversion, entitled, We Need to Talk: God Speaks to a Modern Girl. Along with Johnnetta Williams (formerly Benkovic), she co-authored the Young Women of Grace Study Program which teaches girls (ages 13+) about what it means to be authentically feminine. Her latest publication is Day by Day in The Little Way, published by the Catholic Life Institute Press. Her other books include: The Catholic Guide to Mindfulness, Pray Like a Catholic, Live Like a Catholic, Mindful Like a Catholic, and Live The Little Way, all of which have imprimaturs from the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

Her national journalism awards include the Bernadine O'Connor Award for Pro-Life Journalism, the Eileen Egan Journalism Award from Catholic Relief Services, and numerous awards from the Catholic Press Association and the Philadelphia Press Association.

Her message is of DIRE importance to all Catholics today, don't miss this event!
