Stunur Exteriors

Recent, strong winds tore off panels of siding from the front of St. Peter's and left them dangling precariously. Andy Kiely, of Stunur Exteriors in Lindenhurst, was called on Holy Saturday morning.

In no time at all, his crew brought in a lift and securely reattached the panels before parishioners arrived for the Easter Vigil! Stunur Exteriors is a friend of St. Peter's Church and if you ever need a new roof or have to replace siding or gutters; if you want new flooring or a new deck for all your summer barbeques, Father Joe suggests you give Andy a call at 847-533-0118. Tell him Father Joe sent you!

This is just a friendly reminder to bring your Lenten Alms to Mass with you next weekend.

The faster everyone returns the banks that they received on Ash Wednesday, the faster we can write a check and get the much needed money to the people in Haiti.

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

What prevents us from seeing the Lord?

We are not used to seeing Jesus in the ordinary, everyday events of our lives. We expect some kind of startling, extraordinary revelation to occur that definitely and unmistakably sends a signal that God wants our attention. We don't expect a visit from Jesus while we are having breakfast, doing the dishes, running after the kids, negotiating a deal at work, or taking a shower! Sometimes when God simply stands on the shore of our lives casually looking for us, we don't recognize Him. Did we ever stop and think that God is really and truly interested in the routine, run of the mill events of our lives?

So, "what did you do today?" God may ask. Maybe we don't think that God is concerned about such things, or we are so consumed with life's demands that we give it little if any thought. Perhaps we are determined to achieve our own success, desire to control things ourselves or not really sure what God cares about. God is there. One day, out of the blue, God will get our attention and ask, "Do you love me?"

Msgr. Joe was honored to baptize

Mikayla Murphy last Sunday afternoon!

Pictured with Mikayla are her mom and dad,
Caitlin and Michael.

Congratulations to Mikayla and her family!

HAVE YOU EVER THOUGHT ABOUT BECOMING CATHOLIC?

For centuries, people have turned to the Catholic Church to find the answers to the deepest, hardest, and even the most basic questions of everyday life.

- Do you have questions about the Catholic faith or about faith in general?
- Are you a Christian of a different faith background who wants to learn more about the Catholic faith, or are you unbaptized and seeking a faith tradition and church as a faith community?
- Is God calling you to consider joining and living the Catholic faith?
- Do you know someone who is interested in learning about the Catholic faith?
- Are you an adult Catholic in need of completing your sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation or First Eucharist?

If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, please join us to explore God's call in your life. Start now by contacting Paul or Karyn Leali at 847-337-5043 for more information about RCIA. Classes will begin again before you know it!

FATHER STU

Parishioner Recommended Movie! R-Rated for language!

Starring Mark Wahlberg and Mel Gibson, this newly released film is truly a grace filled movie of one man's struggles in life that led him to a crossroad. Stuart Long's internal suffering created a deep seated controversy of his own moral choices. Let's just say Stuart's character is a bit unrefined, and his vulgar vocabulary brings out his crude exterior. His emotional brokenness leads Stuart to a woman, Carmen, a staunch Catholic, who demands that if they are to be together, Stuart must become a baptized Catholic.

Stuart's journey to come to know God, with Carmen's persistence, becomes very real when Stuart experiences an internal conversion. God, in his infinite wisdom and love, draws Stuart to continue growing his Catholic faith by entering a seminary to be formed as a priest. Stuart's internal conversion of heart persists through redemptive suffering (you'll have to see the movie to find out how). In God's grace, Stuart finds within himself a strength, through humbleness, to use his suffering for God. Stuart, comes to understand that his suffering is a gift and against the odds he is ordained as a diocesan priest of Helena, Montana. Fr. Stuart is determined against his physical limitations to share with his parish his new transformed love for God. Instead of fighting with God, Stuart Long fights for God.

As mentioned, this movie is for adults and mature teens (accompanied by an adult), but is highly recommend since it presents a positive view of a Catholic Priest's life struggles in an entertaining and heartwarming way.

On their 50th wedding anniversary, a couple summed up the reason for their long and happy marriage. The husband said, "I have always done my best to never be selfish. After all, there is no 'I' in the word 'marriage.'" The wife said, "For my part, I have never corrected my husband's spelling."

A gorilla goes into a bar and orders a martini. This totally amazes the bartender, but he thinks, "What the heck, I guess I might as well make the drink." So he mixes the martini. As he hands the drink to the gorilla, the animal is holding out a twenty dollar bill. Well, at this point, the bartender is at a loss for words. He can't believe that a gorilla walked into his bar, ordered a martini, and then actually had a twenty dollar bill to pay for it!

So, in amazement, he takes the twenty and walks to the cash register to make the change. While he's standing in front of the register, he stops for a second and thinks to himself, "Let me try something here and see if the gorilla notices anything."

So he walks back to the gorilla and hands him a dollar in change. The gorilla doesn't say anything, but just sits there sipping his martini. After a few minutes, the bartender just couldn't take it anymore!

"You know," he said to the gorilla, "we don't get too many gorillas in here." And the gorilla said, "At nineteen dollars a drink, I'm not surprised."

Gifts in Disguise

Have you ever opened a gift and wondered what the giver was thinking?

I won't call out any of my family or friends here, but suffice to say, I think we have all been the confused recipient of a sweater that wasn't our size or a gift card to a store where we don't shop. But we smiled all the same and said how much it meant to us, because we know that when it comes to gifts, it's all about the gesture.

Suffering is a lot like that—the gift you never asked for, and don't really want to receive. Sometimes we look at suffering and, like the apostles who see Jesus as a stranger on the shore, we don't recognize it for what it can be. We don't appreciate the catalyst suffering can be for change, for growth, for grace.

What was the gift that you received in disguise? Was it a relationship that confounded and frustrated you? Was it a job that tested your spirit? An obstacle that stopped you dead in your tracks? A rejection that threatened to break your spirit?

If I go back and look at the worst gifts I've ever gotten, chances are that I didn't like them because I didn't know what to do with them—they were more fitted for someone else's interests, someone else's life. It's the same with suffering. We're tempted to cast suffering aside when it comes our way because it doesn't fit the person we are. Suffering is made to fit the person God knows we have the ability, with His grace, to become.

Hang onto that suffering. Unlike the misshapen sweater, it really will come in handy.
