Where Do I Belong?

Come And See!

Our St. Peter Family welcomes everyone who is interested in becoming Catholic, including those who wish to be Confirmed. Our Directors of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults are Karyn and Paul Leali. They are great listeners and wonderful teachers who are eager to hear the story of your own faith journey, and to share how Catholicism can enhance your life! If you have any questions or would like to know more about the RCIA process and when the next classes begin, call them at 847-337-5043.

We are currently processing ideas, formulating plans and making important decisions for the year. It would be a great help to us if you don't put off making the call!

"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

~ Matthew 28:19-20 ~

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Discipline is necessary for us to focus our attention and develop and refine our skills. A disciplined person has integrity and can make difficult but necessary choices. Most people do not like discipline, especially children. When we have to rise above our impulses and desires and do something challenging, it can appear as a punishment. The struggles of living a good and effective Christian life, especially when we actively choose virtue over vice, are allowed by God and necessary for reaching spiritual maturity. God invites us to share in His Kingdom. Hearing and accepting that invitation requires an active, conscious decision on our part. Reforming our lives and changing how we do things does not come easily. But it is precisely what is necessary for us to enter through the narrow gate that leads to life. Discipline is essential if we are going to discover our desire for union with our Creator and live in God's house. In this way, we will not risk finding the door locked when we need it to be open.

In the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, we receive the greatest reconciliation possible, the healing of the separation between God and humanity due to sin. And because of our unity with Jesus' Heart, the Heart of the Son of God, we are able to pray the words that He taught us, "Our Father." The Mass is the place where peace is possible, this is the place where peace is not a mere dream, in the Communion of Christ's Body gathered as one in His Eucharistic Presence. Peace is the fruit of His Presence in our midst. If you are longing for peace and desire to see it, go to Mass this Sunday and sit next to the person in your parish who perhaps you struggle to love and look them in the eye and say, "Peace be with you."

Have you heard of the Tate family?

They're very prominent in many churches.

There's old Dick Tate who wants to run everything.

Ro Tate tries to change everything.

Agi Tate stirs up plenty of trouble, with help from her husband, Irri Tate. When a new project is suggested, Hesi Tate and his wife, Vege Tate, always want to wait until next year. Then there's Imi Tate, who wants the church to be like all the others. Devas Tate always provides the voice of doom, while Poten Tate wants to be important.

Not every Tate is trouble, though. Cousins Cogi Tate and Medi Tate are the thoughtful types. Brother Facili Tate is quite helpful, and Miss Felici Tate is delightful.
Just watch out for Ampu Tate.

How can I Practice Gratitude in My Everyday Life?

God has given each of us many blessings. Fostering an "attitude of gratitude" might be easier than you think. Simple, concrete practices can help us to be more thankful more often. Incorporate it into your dinner with your spouse, or as you tuck the kids into bed at night. "What are three things you're thankful for today?" Make a habit of writing one note a week to someone special in your life, thanking them for how they've impacted you. This is also a good practice in the workplace. Consider opening your weekly meetings with a quick round of gratitude sharing. "I'm grateful John helped me with that last-minute change to my presentation last week. I wouldn't have finished it in time for the meeting without him."

Another way is to designate a few minutes to thank God. This could be the first bit of your daily prayer time or after you receive Communion on Sundays. You can also integrate it into your daily routine. How about while brushing your teeth? There's probably nothing so important it can't wait two minutes. Brush your teeth, quiet your mind, and thank God from your heart for His blessings throughout the day. Get creative! Any moment is an opportunity to praise and thank God.

Chancing The Narrow Gate

From doctors to counselors, anthropologists to schoolteachers, it seems like everyone has their own parenting style to peddle, guaranteeing it will result in a happy and well-adjusted kid.

You've got "gentle parenting," predicated on respect for the child's feelings and needs. You've got "attachment parenting," based on the belief that kids need time to adjust to being outside of the womb. You've got "free-range parenting," where self-sufficiency reigns supreme.

But of all the parenting approaches I've come across, I've never encountered a philosophy that rejects discipline altogether. There are lots of conflicting opinions on how best to administer that discipline, but I've never heard any parent or parenting "expert" worth their salt say that a mother or father should completely ignore misbehavior that threatens the well-being of the child himself.

Discipline is in our human DNA. Consider for a moment what the world would look like if it came to be filled with people who had never been taught to reflect on their life challenges. People who bristled at the suggestion of personal growth.

And yet we become this way with God. Even the most "devout" among us shy away from occasions of divine constructive criticism. We avoid confession and forego daily examinations of conscience. We keep things superficial in our prayer life, avoiding depth of heart and real intimacy with God, afraid of what He will speak to us.

But when we do this, we rob ourselves of an opportunity to rely on God's Fatherly strength, to rest in His mercy, to fill ourselves up with His goodness. We're putting up our hands, saying "No thanks, Father, I'm good. You can keep your discipline. You can keep your grace."

When we do this, we are making a beeline for the "narrow gate," sure of our own strength and ability to pass through it. All I can say is this, proceed at your own peril. Are you so sure of yourself?

"You never see a poster in the Post Office saying, WANTED IN-LAWS."
