Will You Help?

It is the Year of the Eucharist and we need parishioners to be members of our Adoration Team.
Every weekend, the Blessed Sacrament is exposed for Adoration and someone must always be present.
Unfortunately, due to medical treatments and another unforeseen circumstance, we have two vacancies that must be filled for this important ministry to continue. The two time slots are 8:00 pm and 9:00 pm every Saturday. If you are available and happy to spend one hour with our Lord, during either of those times, please call Carrie Shannon at 815-687-6734 or Fr. Joe at the Parish Office.

Prayers and Squares Meeting

Thursday, September 8th at 1:30 pm in the Parish Hall

Prayers and Squares makes many blankets and prayer shawls to give parishioners, friends or relatives, plus various groups in the local area. These blankets and shawls are created from the heart and filled with prayers and blessings for those who receive them.

These blankets and shawls are created from the heart and filled with prayers and blessings for those who receive them.

That being said we are in need of more yarn!

20 ounces is needed for a shawl and 30 ounces for a blanket. Please NO wool or cotton yarn.

Acrylic yarn is the best!

New members are always welcomed. If you can knit or crochet, that’s wonderful. If not, don’t worry we will teach you. We also have plenty of fleece available if you would like to start making simple blankets at first. If you can use a pair of scissors and tie a knot, you have all the skills needed!

If you have any questions/requests please call Elaine Brandstetter at 815-678-9932

"Silence in the Presence of the Lord." Zephaniah 1:7

You might have noticed that some parishioners come to Mass early in order to pray and spiritually prepare themselves. Others choose to stay after Mass, to thank God for the gift they just received or to light a candle and say a prayer to Mary or the Sacred Heart.

Always be mindful of our brothers and sisters who are praying. Be polite and respectful and let's try even harder to lower our voices when visiting with friends. Never forget that silence is golden, particularly in Church, because God doesn't shout in His own House. He whispers, and we need to hear Him.

"I look at Him, and He looks at me."

"We need not speak so much to pray well. We know the good Lord is in the tabernacle. We open our hearts to Him and delight in His presence; that is the best prayer! It reminds me of the first time I came to Ars. Listen to this, my children. There was a man who never passed the church without entering it. When he went to work in the morning, and when he was returning home in the evening, he left his spade and pickaxe at the door and remained a long time, I asked him what he said to our Lord during the long visits he paid Him. Do you know what he answered? 'Oh, I don't say anything to Him, Monsieur le Cure. I just look at Him, and He looks at me.' How beautiful that is, my children. How beautiful that is!"

~ St. John Vianney ~

Three kids are having lunch together and they're arguing about who's dad is the fastest. The first boy says, "My dad is the fastest because he is a brick layer, and when he drops a brick from the 5th floor, he can run to the ground and be there before the brick hits!"

"Not bad," says the 2nd boy, "but my dad is faster. He is a professional archer. When he shoots an arrow at the bullseye, he can reach it before the arrow does!"

"That's pretty fast," said the 3rd boy, "but not as fast as my old man! My dad works for the government as a public servant, and when he finishes work at 5:00 pm, he gets home by 2:30!"
