Are You Willing to Join the Ministry of SACRISTAN?

This very important ministry is open to men and women whose task it would be to get all the essentials ready for Masses. Responsibilities include setting out the bread to be consecrated, cruets of water and wine, sacred vessels and books among other things. Depending on which Mass they serve, they would also open church doors or lock them afterward. A sacristan's work is seldom noticed but always needed and appreciated! Their job is very similar to readying our homes for visitors! If interested and would like to volunteer, please leave your name and number at the parish office, 815.675.2288, and one of our excellent, experienced sacristans will be happy to train you!

"Filthy talk makes us feel uncomfortable with filthy action. But the one who knows how to control the tongue is prepared to resist the attacks of lust."

~ St. Clement of Rome, Pope and Martyr ~

St. Pope Clement I, is the patron saint of mariners & stone cutters. He was the 4th Pope and is considered to be the first Apostolic Father of the Church, along with Polycarp and Ignatius of Antioch.

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Expressing gratitude is a sign of a loving heart. When we have received a gracious gesture, the appreciation experienced forms a bond between the giver and receiver. This can only happen when abundance and kind gestures are seen as gifts and not something to which we are entitled. The power of gratitude is more profound when we realize all that we are and all we are given do not have a human source but are of God. Walking around believing that our glass is only half full leaves us always wanting more. We are never satisfied. We become nothing more than entitled pursuers of whatever we can get. Instead, the one who is eager to count their blessings and appreciate the wonder and beauty of the gift of life itself is at peace. Before they take another step or venture off on another journey, they bow in gratitude to the presence of God Himself. They are most keenly aware that all would cease to be without God.

God is so good to us!

Extraordinary Ministers for the Homebound

October 9th - 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Steve Besetzny, Bev Schmitt & Peggy Neuman

October 16th - 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Nancy Piggot, Don Piggot & Mary Seil

A little girl, dressed in her Sunday best, was running as fast as she could so she wouldn't be late for Mass. As she ran, she kept praying, "Dear Lord, please don't let me be late! Please, dear Jesus, don't let me be late!" While she was running and praying, she tripped on a curb and fell down, getting her clothes dirty and tearing her pretty dress. She got up, brushed herself off and started running again! As she ran, she once again began to pray, "Dear Jesus, please don't let me be late... and please don't shove me either!"

If you left the Church to get away from hypocritical people, you should also quit your job, drop out of school, disconnect yourself from all of your friends and family, lock yourself in your room while you're at it. There will be flaws wherever there are humans. We need to start seeing church for what it is: it is a hospital with wounded and hurt people. You will find messed up, conniving, calculating, imperfect individuals, including yourself. As much as you want to deny it, we all go for healing. So if you felt betrayed by a fellow Church member, put your Nursing cap on, and think of them as your patients. Treat them with care, love and kindness despite their rudeness.

THE ZEAL OF THE CONVERT

When you work in the Church, professionally or on a volunteer basis, you become familiar with the phenomenon known as “the zeal of the recent convert.”

Sometimes, it really seems that the newly baptized are just stronger Catholics than the cradle Catholics. They smile more at Mass. They are awestruck by the Eucharist. They come out of the confessional beaming.

It's not that they are naïve. It's not that they are in some honeymoon phase of religion, living outside of reality. It's simply that they remember. They remember what it felt like before the Eucharist or before Confession. They recall before the sacraments and the oil and the grace and the relief. It was more recent for them than for some of us older Catholics—especially those of us who were baptized as infants.

Let's ask ourselves: Have we become too comfortable? Do we receive God's grace with expectation instead of surprise? Have we ceased to marvel and wonder at the goodness of God? If the answer is a resounding yes, don't despair. Look at the Gospel—a literal nine times out of ten, God goes un-thanked and un-noticed.

So many of us have forgotten, or never understood, what it meant when the leprosy was washed from our souls. But when we remind ourselves, we become more keenly aware of the extraordinariness of the gift we have received.

A priest is walking down the street one day when he notices a small boy trying to press a doorbell on a house across the street. However, the doorbell is just out of his reach.

After watching the boy's efforts for some time, the priest steps smartly across the street, walks up behind the little fellow, reaches over the boy's shoulder and gives the doorbell a ring.

Then, crouching down to the child's level, the priest smiles benevolently and asks, "And now what, little man?"

The boy turns and yells, "NOW WE RUN!"
