Last Saturday's Rosary Rally was a HUGE SUCCESS!
26 attendees braved the weather and joined together in prayer for the 2022 Rosary Rally for America, led by our own Deacon Mark Raz in front of St. Peter's "Our Lady of Fatima Shrine".

(Praying to God to Solve America's Key Problems that have failed through human efforts.)

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I want to take this opportunity to thank you for your many prayers and all the things many of you have done for me since my surgery. Each prayer and every act of kindness is appreciated more than you know. In fact, my therapist agreed that everyone's prayers are obviously being answered because I'm not groaning and complaining anywhere near as much as I did when we first started doing therapy. 😊

Stay strong in our Lord and remain devoted to our Blessed Mother, and please continue to pray for the full recovery of all our brothers and sisters who are sick!

Gratefully,
Fr. Joe

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

To be humble means to see ourselves as we are. It comes with the recognition that we are never perfect, better than another, or free of sin. The humble person knows their faults and failings as well as their successes and triumphs. They also realize that they are nothing without God, especially God's mercy. The humble one knows who they are, who they can be, and how they have fallen short. Being desperately in love with God, they know how they have sometimes given in to their desires rather than God's will, almost with a sense of embarrassment. Being justified in our relationship with God is not about a list of the good things we do and the bad things we don't. We are vindicated when we realize how totally dependent we are upon God's gratuitous, abundant, and unconditional love. It is a gift we often take for granted and is often unappreciated.

The Catholic Bishops of the United States requested a 2nd collection this weekend, in order to provide humanitarian relief for those impacted by Hurricane Ian.

The money you give toward this special appeal will become part of the Bishop's Emergency Disaster Fund and will be used to support the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops for pastoral and reconstruction needs of the Church. Your donation will also help the efforts of Catholic Charities and Catholic Relief Services, as they respond to immediate emergency needs and help in long-term rebuilding and recovery efforts. Overall, funds will be used in response to hurricanes and the impact of subsequent flooding and tornadoes and any other disaster that occurs, and will be distributed where they are most needed.

An elderly woman had just returned home from Mass when she was startled by an intruder. She actually caught the man in the act of robbing her home and yelled,
"Stop! Acts 2:38 Repent, so that your sins may be forgiven!"

The burglar stopped dead in his tracks, and the woman proceeded to calmly call the police and explain what she had done.

As the officer cuffed the man to take him in, he asked the burglar, "Why did you just stand there? The old lady just yelled a scripture passage to you."

"Scripture?" replied the burglar. "She told me she had an ax and two 38's."

Why are there no "Knock, Knock" jokes

Answer: Because Freedom Rings!

"Those who are called to the table of the Lord must glow with the brightness that comes from the good example of a praiseworthy and blameless life."

October 30th - 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

An old man, with hearing problems, crashed his car into a very expensive automobile. The owner of the expensive car jumps out and confronts the old man and says, "Give me $10,000 cash or I will beat you to a pulp!"

The old man replies, "Woah wait buddy, I don't have that much money, but let me call my son, he trains dolphins." The old man dials his son, and as he is about to speak the owner of the expensive car yanks the phone out of his hand and says, "So you train dolphins, well your old man just hit and damaged my car, you bring me $10,000 or I'm gonna beat the heck outta him!"

The son answers "Okay, give me 15 minutes and I'll be there." In exactly 15 minutes the son pulls up in a Jeep, ten men jump out and beat the daylight out of the expensive car owner.

Meanwhile, the son walks over to his father and says, "Dad I train Navy Seals, not dolphins!"

Pray to God and ask God:
"May Your will be done in my life today."

MORE THAN A BUZZWORD

If you roll your eyes at the mention of the term stewardship, it's probably because, in the modern Church, stewardship has become something of a corporate buzzword. It's often used interchangeably with the concept of financial endowment and volunteerism.

What's wrong with supporting your parish monetarily? What's the issue with giving or your time in service and ministry? Nothing at all, in fact—we should all be doing more of these things.

But as we do them, we should be constantly asking ourselves the all-important questions: Why am I doing this? How am I doing this? For whom am I doing this?

A donation to the parish school is a great thing. But ideally, the donor would have made the gift regardless of the ability to name the school gym. A tireless volunteer who always finds time for her parish certainly glorifies God with her commitment. But hopefully, her commitment would be just as enthusiastic if she knew there was no prospect of being written up in the bulletin as Volunteer of the Month.

God knows no favorites. The prayer of the Pharisee in the temple did not justify him because the Pharisee didn't really mean it as a prayer. His intent wasn't to thank God, his intent was to draw attention to his gifts.

God did not reject the Pharisee's fasting and his tithes, He rejected the spirit in which they were offered.

God desires to transform us—our hearts, our souls, our communities. When we give of ourselves—either through money or through time—He is honored by the act of giving, not the gift itself. We should never make the mistake of thinking that stewardship is “time, talent, and treasure.” Stewardship is the spirit of offering these gifts freely.
