MIDTERM ELECTION 2022

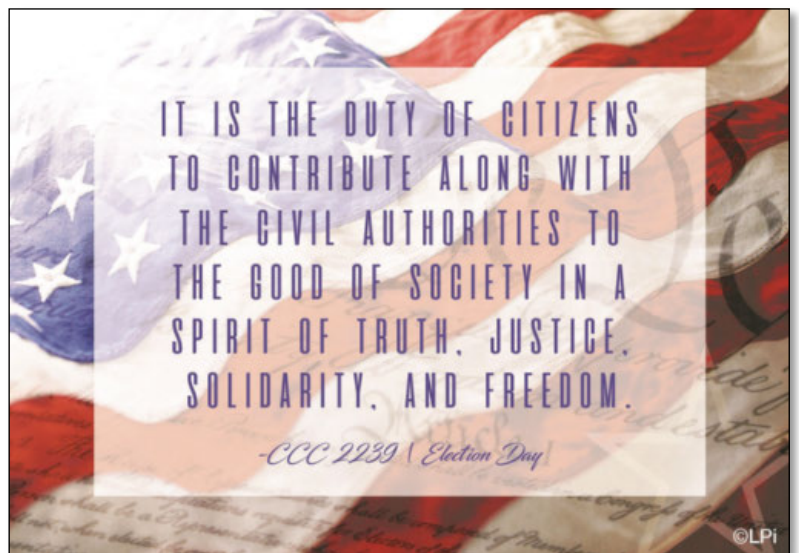

The countdown has already started and come this Tuesday, Nov. 8th, it will be Midterm Election Day when we will be exercising our privilege and duty as American citizens to vote. Few elections, in American history, will be as important as this one, and it's good to remember that for us Catholics, voting is a moral obligation and participating in the whole process is a virtue!

We all know there are major differences between candidates, but if we feel that one candidate is just as bad as the other, we must never allow that feeling to become the reason for us to lose interest and decide to stay home on November 8th. What we need to do is study and learn the positions of the people whose names appear on that ballot! Don't just listen to what they say because politicians say all sorts of things depending on what day it is. Instead, study their voting records and look what they've actually done to highlight the differences, because you can bet that one candidate will always be closer to our values and viewpoints than the other.

Also, let your guidance be the difference between certainty and doubt. More often than not, we're faced with the choice between a candidate we know we don't want and someone else about whom we're not sure. But the point is, you don't have to be certain about how every choice or action of your candidate is going to turn out. If they lean in the right direction or if there is the probability or possibility that they will do the right thing and make the right choices, that is much better than the certainty of a candidate who will make the wrong choices. So.. when faced with the choice between a certain evil and a possible good, choose the possible good.

Last bit of advice is this. Don't vote to just make yourself feel good. Our votes are meant to influence our American society in the right direction by helping us get people into public office who will help make that happen. So remember that your vote is not an opinion poll about what we think about a candidate. It's actually a transfer of power, but it's also a gamble. It's a gamble because God doesn't always give us clear, predictable choices. But He does expect us to use good judgment, and its good judgments that help us avoid evils that are certain, and increase the possibilities for good.

If you haven't participated in early voting yet, make sure you don't skip the election on Tuesday!
Everyone needs to vote! And vote as if everything we dream for our children and value as Americans, and the ways we practice our faith depends on it.

Traditionally, November has always been a time when devoted Catholics remember and pray for the Souls of the Faithful Departed, especially our own deceased loved ones and parishioners. As Catholics, all of us should hope for the eternal salvation of all God's children, and that is why it is so important for us to give our deceased loved ones extra love and care by praying to them and for them. Throughout these next four weeks, we respectfully solicit your daily prayers for the eternal rest of our brothers and sisters whose Mass of Resurrection was celebrated at St. Peter's this past year. They are:

Martha Hastreiter	Mike Frer	Anna Kretchmer	Stephen Bonner
Ronald Coulman	Marion Endler	Marcella Marsh	Raymond Wilkinson, Sr
Terrance Lutz	Edward Curry	William Etten	Renee Curran
Jeanette Lutz	William Koza	Joseph Carey	Mark Mucek
Rita Chinni	Leon Metz	Donald Wehrheim, Sr	Emil 'Dan' Vucovich
Frank Lecinski	Mary Alice Link	Hal Shapiro
Robert Smith	Patricia Eckman	Jeffrey Krensis

Their names have been inscribed in our Book of Remembrance, lovingly placed in front of the ambo where it will remain throughout the month of November. You will notice a rosemary plant just to the right of the book. Many of us use rosemary when we cook because it is a wonderful, aromatic herb. But did you know that, for many centuries, it was also associated with death and remembrance? It's true! In fact, as part of the burial rite, mourners would toss bouquets of rosemary on top of their loved one's casket!

To the left of the Book of Remembrance is a small Olive Tree. In ancient times, olive oil was used as fuel, in lamps, to give light. It was also a symbol of peace and where the expression of "extending an olive branch" originated. These are visible reminders, for us to pray, that our deceased loved ones be resting in light and peace,

May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy and love of God, rest in peace.

It's hard to believe that Advent begins in just 3 weeks!

In preparation for this important season of hope and expectation, we invite parishioners to light the Advent wreath at the beginning of weekend Masses and bring up the gifts during the Offertory.

It should be an honor and signing up is easy! Once you enter the church, you will see a large poster on the right side of the vestibule with the designated dates and times of all the Advent Masses. If you are able to commit to any one of them, legibly PRINT the name(s) of those whom the priest will be inviting to come forward. And if you would be kind enough to include your phone number, we will be happy to give you a reminder call.

Attention Lectors!

The 2023 Lector workbooks have arrived. Please arrange to pick up your copy either in the Parish Office (Tuesday - Thursday, 8:30 am - 5:00 pm) or in the Sacristy after Mass during the weekends of November 5-6, 12-13 or 19-20. May God bless our lectors who bring God's Word to Life!

Jewel Osco & Helping Hands Food Pantry is asking for help to provide Thanksgiving Dinners

Fellow Parishioners,

Please help Jewel Osco in Spring Grove in their effort to make all our neighbors' Thanksgivings plentiful.

Your donation of $5 or more will help toward providing a full dinner worth $64.99 for every family. This is food enough for 6 - 8 people.

Every little bit donated helps feed more people.

Jewel Osco and Helping Hands Food Pantry of Spring Grove thank you for your support and generosity! With St. Peter's backing this project we were able to supply 300 meals last year. With your help again, we are hoping to match the success we had last year.

Prayers and Squares Meeting

Thursday, November 10th at 1:30 pm
in the Parish Hall

Would you like to spend a pleasant afternoon and meet new friends? Come to the Prayers and Squares Meeting to assist with making blankets and shawls to comfort people or just come to sit and chat with some very nice ladies! There is yarn for knitters and crocheters and fleece for those who want to complete a project in an afternoon. Instructions are always included.

If you would like a blanket or shawl, please contact Elaine at 815-678-9932.

Donations of yarn are always welcome but be sure the yarn is acrylic, not wool. Many are allergic to wool and special care is needed in caring for wool garments. The blankets and shawls need to be easily machine washed and dried.

Late one night, Daffy Duck and Elmer Fudd broke into a distillery. Daffy turned to Elmer and asked, "Is this whiskey?" Elmer said, "Yeah, but not as whiskey as robbing a bank."

Cemetery News!

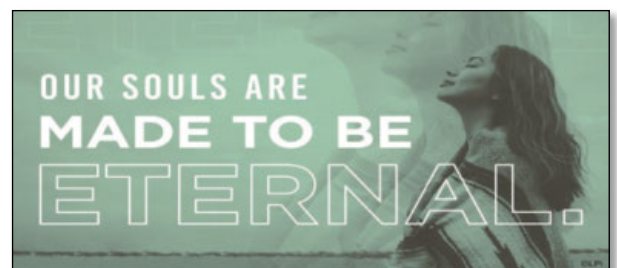

I wanted to share a few updates with you regarding our cemetery...

It's that time of year again. Please remove all the spring and summer gravesite decorations that you want to save. This includes, but not limited to, artificial flowers, rocks, statues, shepherd hooks (that the Diocese doesn't like), cans & bottles. If you don't want what is on the gravesite, let me know and I can save you the trip and dispose of it for you.

Over the coming year we are going to replace our cross and install some new lighting around it. If anyone knows a bricklayer to help with this job, it would be appreciated. In addition, we will be leveling several grave stones. If we haven't marked yours yet, please let me know.

Also, as I previously communicated to you, there are not many niches remaining. If you are so inclined, please give me a call to inquire about purchasing one.

Three guys got out of their car, unfortunately, it was already too late when they realize they had locked the key inside. The first guy said, "Get me a coat hanger. I'll straighten it and I'll get that key." But the second guy said in response, "You can't do that because someone will think we're stealing the car!" Then the 3rd guy said, "Well, we better decide quick because it's starting to rain and the top is down."
