Thank you, Debbie Thompson!

Debbie Thompson, a parishioner and owner of Thompson Spring Grove Funeral Home, is giving a 2023 Appointment Calendar to all our families at St. Peter's! It's a beautiful gift and one that certainly comes in handy all year long! Remember to pick one up after Mass this weekend and don't forget to thank Debbie when you see her! She loves her parish family and we love her and appreciate her ministry!

Thursday, December 8th

Feast Day of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary

A Holy Day of Obligation for us Catholics

Mass Schedule: 8:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.

What Is the Immaculate Conception?

Proclaimed by Pope Pius IX (December 8, 1854) stated: The Doctrine affirming the freedom of the Blessed Virgin Mary from sin from the very moment of her conception. "We, by the authority of Jesus Christ, Our Lord, of the Blessed Apostles, Peter and Paul and by Our Own, declare, pronounce, and define the doctrine which holds that the Blessed Virgin Mary, at the first instant of conception, by a singular privilege and grace of the Omnipotent God in consideration of the merits of Jesus Christ, the Savior of mankind was preserved from all stain of original sin, has been revealed by God, and therefore is to be firmly and constantly believed by all the faithful" (Ineffabilis Deus).

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The God in whom we believe is "the God of endurance and encouragement." Have you ever thought about God in those terms? Our sight can become limited by the concerns of the world and our individual lives. We can look to the past and see what is happening in the present, but the future is primarily left to our imaginations. God has a clear vision for the future. It is one where the "wolf shall be a guest of the lamb and the leopard shall lie down with the kid." It is a vision of harmony and gentleness where all will live as one. We can see the complete picture of life in God. We see what we may be, what may come, and who we can become. Preparing the way for the Lord means moving beyond the limitations of ideology, time space, preference, and self-focused concern so that we can see as God sees. God will give us what we need to endure whatever comes, and the encouragement we need to get where we can be.

In Christian Charity, pray for the eternal rest of Richard Seil.

Rich died on November 21st and we extend our heartfelt sympathy to Mary, his soulmate of 57 years, and we promise our prayers for their entire family.

Eternal rest grant unto Richard, O Lord, and let your perpetual light shine upon him. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

CHRISTMAS OPLATKI

Now AVAILABLE!
in the Sacristy for only $3

SUPPLY IS LIMITED, SO BE SURE TO PICK-UP
YOURS TODAY

Tradition of the Oplatki

For centuries on Christmas Eve, families in Poland, Lithuania, the Czech and Slovak Republics have practiced a beautiful tradition. It is the breaking and sharing of the Oplatek—Christmas Wafer. Oplatek taken from the Latin word oblatum, meaning Sacred Bread, has been the symbol of Christianity and Jesus Christ our Bread of Life since the Last Supper. The host or hostess leads in a special prayer and distributes an oplatek to the participants. Each person breaks off a piece of the other's Oplatek and continues until they have exchanged good wishes and blessings with everyone.

With Christmas fast approaching, and with one of our valued ushers moving to Iowa, we are looking for polite and cordial parishioners who will come to Mass at least 20 minutes early to welcome worshippers with a smile! Ushers should also be willing to stay a little longer after Mass and make sure things are in order for the next liturgy. Most especially, we need men and women who have a sense of the sacred because Jesus is the host of every Eucharistic banquet and ultimately, it's Him we serve! If you are willing and able to be a team member, please call the parish office or email Chad Franckowiak at chadfranko@gmail.com

TO PREPARE OUR HEARTS THIS ADVENT FOR JESUS' COMING WE NEED TO CLEAN OUR HOUSES!

CONFESSIONS

Every Saturday
from 3:00 p.m. until 3:45 p.m.
Or call the Parish Office to schedule an appointment with Father!

Our parish is looking for capable and dedicated parishioners to join the Ministry of Lectors! This is such an important ministry because when people actually hear the Word of God and allow it to resonate in their hearts, faith is born! If you meet the following requirements, won't you consider becoming a Lector?

- * Are you able to bring everything you have and everything you are into the presence of God?
- * Do you appreciate the effect of God's holy word on your own prayer life?
- * Do you understand the difference between "reading" and "proclaiming"?
- * Would parishioners be drawn closer to God because of you? Do people pay attention when you speak?
- * Do you speak with confidence? Do you enunciate and pronounce words correctly?

We need lovers of God's Holy Word at St. Peter's!
If you believe you can breathe life into It, please call
Father Joe at 815-675-2288 ext 201

We Need Your Help!

Every Saturday Evening right after the 4:00 Mass, the Blessed Sacrament is placed in the Monstrance and the sacred vessel is placed upon the altar for exposition to be adored by all until the following morning just before the 7:00 am Mass is celebrated. During these night time hours someone must always be present with Jesus.

The Adoration team has an immediate hour that must be filled for this important ministry to continue. That time slot is the 3:00 a.m. hour every Saturday night.

If you available or wish to share that hour with another individual, please call Carrie Shannon at 815-687-6734 or Fr. Joe at the Parish Office.

How Much is Enough?

I've got some great news for some of you: Jesus Christ doesn't care what name you bear. He doesn't care where you were born, and He doesn't care what your family tree looks like. He doesn't care where you grew up or where you went to school.

I've also got some bad news for some of you: See above.

It's so easy to take our salvation for granted. The mercy of God makes it so. Look at John the Baptist, he was pouring water on everybody who wanted it. Everybody but one group: those who expected it. Those who thought it was a given because of who they were, because of what they were. Those who had no intention of doing the work of repentance.

Sometimes, because God is so faithful, we make the mistake of forgetting that He is also just.

I am baptized, we think. I made my First Communion, and I was Confirmed. That's enough.

I went to Catholic school. I know all the Ten Commandments and I can tell you anything you want to know about the Popes. That's enough.

I'm on the parish council. I put money in the basket, and I volunteer. That's enough.

None of it is enough. It would never be enough. And before we look upon the Pharisees and Sadducees with too much judgment, we need to remember:

The work of repentance is ongoing. It is a process that we must commit to within ourselves, continuously.

God is the missing element to this question. He is the One who raises children to Abraham from the stones. If we rely only on our own abilities, our own merits, our own offerings, it will never be enough.

~ Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

On his way to church, a farm boy accidentally tipped over his wagon. A neighboring farmer, also on his way to church, heard the commotion and pulled up nearby.

"Hey, hop in with us," the neighbor said.
"I'll help you get the wagon up after church."

"That's mighty nice of you," the boy answered, "but I don't think Pa would like me to."

"Come on," the Good Samaritan insisted.
"If you don't hurry, we'll be late!"

"Well, okay," the boy finally agreed.
"But Pa won't like it."

After church, the boy thanked his neighbor for the help. "I'm glad we got to church on time," he said, "but I know Pa is going to be real upset."

"Oh, he'll be fine," the neighbor said with a smile.

"By the way, where is he?"

"Under the wagon."
