LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We can often feel parched, desolate, lifeless, and dark. Even though we still engage in the business and demands of life, we find ourselves somewhat detached, disengaged, and removed. We lack joy, wonder, awe, and zest. Rather than being an experience of freedom and excitement, life holds us captive. We are tethered to systems, agendas, protocols, regulations, and expectations that go against the grain of what it means to be God's child. We find ourselves in a desert. Jesus came to release us from all of this negativity and desolation. John the Baptist announced the arrival of the One who embodies healing, reconciliation, freedom, and life. Stop complaining about what you don't have. Prepare for the arrival of the remedy to life's despair. Be strong, fear not! Christ will save us from life's distortions, illusions, and disappointments. Be patient. With proper time and care, all will be well.

We are looking for polite and cordial parishioners who are willing to be at the Church at least 20 minute earlier to welcome worshippers with a smile! Ushers should also be willing to stay a few minutes longer after Mass ends and make sure everything is in order for the next liturgy. We most especially, need men and women who have a sense of the sacred because Jesus is the host of every Eucharistic banquet and it is ultimately, Him we serve! If you are willing and able to be a team member, please call the parish office or email Chad Franckowiak at chadfranko@gmail.com

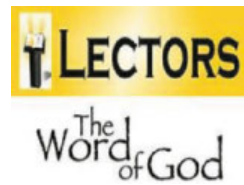

Jewel Foods in Spring Grove is continuing their food drive for Helping Hands Food Pantry until Christmas Eve.

The needs of our community are GREAT.

A record number of people came for Thanksgiving dinners. They were all fed. To make sure we can make Christmas joyous for so many we need your continued support. Please make a donation as you shop the next couple of weeks. Jewel and Helping Hands Food Pantry thank you and wish you a very Blessed Holiday Season.

Our parish is looking for capable and dedicated parishioners to join the Ministry of Lectors! This is such an important ministry because when people actually hear the Word of God and allow it to resonate in their hearts, faith is born! If you meet the following requirements, won't you consider becoming a Lector?

- * Are you able to bring everything you have and everything you are into the presence of God?
- * Do you appreciate the effect of God's holy word on your own prayer life?
- * Do you understand the difference between "reading" and "proclaiming"?
- * Would parishioners be drawn closer to God because of you? Do people pay attention when you speak?
- * Do you speak with confidence? Do you enunciate and pronounce words correctly?

We need lovers of God's Holy Word at St. Peter's!
If you believe you can breathe life into It, please call Father Joe at 815-675-2288 ext 201

Is Jesus Calling You?

Every Saturday Evening right after the 4:00 Mass, the Blessed Sacrament is placed in the Monstrance and the sacred vessel is placed upon the altar for exposition to be adored by all until the following morning just before the 7:00 a.m. Mass is celebrated. During these night time hours someone must always be present with Jesus.

The Adoration team has an immediate hour that must be filled for this important ministry to continue.

That time slot is the 3:00 a.m. hour every Saturday night.

If you're available or wish to share that hour with another individual, please call Carrie Shannon at 815-687-6734 or Fr. Joe at the Parish Office.

Will You
Spend
Just One Hour
With Me?

Attention Adorers of the Blessed Eucharist

There will be no All-Night Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

Saturday, December 24th & 31st

The normal schedule will resume the following Saturday, December 7th.

God Bless your ministry and your understanding!

Keep Christ in Christmas

Our Sanctuary Lamp burns from December 4th through December 17th for † Bob & Marianne McDermid
May this light which reminds us of Jesus' True Presence in the Sanctuary Welcome them into eternal peace.

SAINT ANDREW CHRISTMAS NOVENA

Hail and blessed be the hour and moment in which the Son of God was born of the most pure Virgin Mary, at midnight, in Bethlehem, in piercing cold. In that hour vouchsafe, I beseech Thee, O my God, to hear my prayer and grant my desires through the merits of Our Savior Jesus Christ, and of His blessed Mother.

amen

The Season That Gives Back

I don't have anything left to give.

You can't pour from an empty cup.

All I do is give. Who is giving to me?

Raise your hand if these thoughts have ever run through your head. I'm sure they occur to all of us from time to time. We can become so easily depleted by the fast pace of life and whatever vocation God has called us to, whether that's parenthood, a demanding professional career or the caretaking of friends and family (or as so often happens, a hybrid of all three). Many of us also undergo certain seasons—seasons of the year, but also seasons of life—that seem to sap us of energy and leave us totally empty.

In these times, it seems impossible to continue in the spirituality of everyday stewardship.

Graciousness, mindfulness, prayerfulness, gratitude, accountability—maintaining some semblance of these characteristics in our daily life feels not only overly optimistic, but totally impossible.

The Church gives us certain liturgical seasons that are meant to fill us up, almost like spiritual pit stops. Advent is one such season, and the Scriptural passages we reflect on at Mass during these four weeks are filled with images of nature defied. We see the dry steppe blooming. We see the weak made firm. We see the frightened made strong. We see the lame walk. (Continued on page 6)

We see the Virgin give birth.

If you think you don't have anything left to give this Advent, think again. This is the season of miracles when what we thought was depleted brings new life.

~ Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

It was the Sunday before Christmas when a pastor told his congregation that the church needed some extra money. So, he asked the parishioners to consider donating a little more than usual into the offering basket. He said that whoever gave the most would be able to pick out three hymns. After the offering baskets were passed, the pastor glanced down and noticed that someone had given a $1,000 bill.

He was so excited that he immediately shared his joy with his congregation and said that he'd like to personally thank the person who placed the money in the basket. A very quiet, elderly, saintly looking lady, all the way in the back pew, shyly raised her hand. The pastor invited her to the front of the church.

Slowly she made her way to the pastor. He told her how wonderful it was that she gave so much and in thanks, asked her to pick out three hymns.

His eyes brightened as she looked over the congregation, pointed to the three most handsome men in the building and said, "I'll take him and him and him."
