She Kept All of These Things in Her Heart

"What was my first word? Who was there when I was born? When did I start to walk? Which toys did I play with? What made me cry when I was a baby?"

My oldest has reached the age where she has started to ask questions like this. As she grows up, she is realizing that, in order to understand the world around her, she must first understand herself. This makes her insatiably curious about her own identity, her history — her "origin story," as they say in the movies.

I've got most of it documented either in writing or in photos, but even if it's a detail that wasn't scribbled in a baby book or saved to my digital cloud, it's a memory that I can quickly summon and make real for her as we snuggle and talk about who she was, who she is, and who she may become.

I'm the mom. I have kept all of these things in my heart.

The Blessed Mother knew more about God before opening a book than most of us could discover after a lifetime of study and prayer. There is no one whose knowledge of Christ was so intimate, so deep, so simultaneously ordinary and extraordinary, as the human woman who bore him, birthed him, nursed him, raised him and eventually gave him up.

In the way that I can tell my daughter everything there is to know about the part of her life she cannot recall, Mary can tell us everything we need to know about Christ. All we have to do is ask.

Mary kept all of these things in her heart. — Luke 2:19

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

What is the history of the rosary? Where did this prayer come from?

Answer:

Although a longstanding tradition attributed the rosary to Saint Dominic and the Dominican Order, the practice of using beads to count prayers predates the Dominicans by a few hundred years. In fact, it seems that what we now think of as the rosary (which means "garland of roses") was first developed by illiterate peasants and religious brothers and sisters as a way of offering 150 "Our Fathers" to replace the praying of the 150 psalms in the Divine Office.

The practice of reciting 150 Hail Marys (which was later subdivided into 15 decades of 10 Hail Marys) arose during the late Middle Ages. Devotion to the rosary began to flourish in the nineteenth century, especially as new devotions to Mary began to spread throughout Europe and the New World. An annual liturgical celebration of Our Lady of the Rosary was introduced into the Church calendar in 1573 and it has been observed on the date of October 7 since 1913. In the apostolic letter On the Most Holy Rosary, Pope Saint John Paul II not only added five new mysteries to the traditional fifteen, but he also reminded Catholics that the rosary is, at its core, an opportunity to go deeper into the life of Jesus: "The rosary, though clearly Marian in character, is at heart a Christocentric prayer ... It has all the depth of the Gospel message in its entirety, of which it can be said to be a compendium. It is an echo of Mary's prayer, her perennial Magnificat ... With the rosary, the Christian people sit at the school of Mary and are led to contemplate the beauty of the face of Christ and to experience the depths of his love" (no. 1).

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS NEWSLETTER

QUEEN OF THE MOST HOLY ROSARY

COUNCIL #12302

Grand Knight	Shaun Gosselin	Deputy Grand Knight	Michael Gordon
Treasurer	Lee Jones	Financial Secretary	Forrest Hastings
Chancellor	John Jindra	Counsel Chaplin	Deacon Mark Raz

To our fellow parishioners.

At our meeting December 6th held in church, the first item of business was to renew the commitment we made as Knights of Columbus to uphold our four principles of the order, Charity, Unity, Fraternity & Patriotism. Deacon Mark Raz prepared an excellent presentation.

We had a good representation of our membership and in addition two guests attended the meeting, Joe Bridge, and his son Jackson. Walter Jones was not in attendance but recognized as a new member of our council. When the meeting ended, Joe and Jackson became new members by watching an online presentation taking them through the steps to become Knights of Columbus through the third degree. We all welcome Walter Jones, Joe Bridge, and his son Jackson to our council.

Our first principle is charity. The funds we donate derive from our yearly dues and activities. In November, our council made a charitable donation to Helping Hands Food Pantry. Our council also disbursed the proceeds from our Tootsie Roll Drive to three honorable recipients, Pioneer Center, Main Stays Therapeutic Farm and GiGI's Playhouse.

We will be holding a membership drive in January, where we will hold a degree ceremony in the Church Hall for new members following the pancake breakfast after the 9am mass.

We appreciate the support we receive from all our parishioners and Brother Knights and wish everyone a blessed New Year.

Fraternally,
Officers of Council #12302
Queen of the Most Holy Rosary

Is Jesus, calling You, to sit with Him at the 3:00 a.m. hour?

Every Saturday evening after the 4:00 Mass, the Blessed Sacrament is placed upon the altar for exposition in a sacred vessel to be adored by all until the following morning just before the 7:00 a.m. Mass when Benediction is celebrated.

Throughout the night hours someone must always be physically present in keeping Jesus company.

Our Adoration Team has an open hour that must be filled for this wonderful ministry to continue.

Will you prayerfully consider keeping Jesus company at the 3:00 a.m. hour every Sunday morning.

If you're available or wish to share that hour with another individual, please call Carrie Shannon at 815-687-6734 or Fr. Joe at the Parish Office.

EXPERIENCE LOVE & ACCEPTANCE BY COMING HOME TO THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

There's an old saying that goes, "Once a Catholic, always a Catholic." Maybe you have been away from the Church for a little while or for quite some time, but now you feel a tug at your heart calling you back to the Catholic Church. Listen to that tug. It's your Heavenly Father reaching His arms out to you, the Holy Spirit whispering in your ear, hoping to draw you home.

We hope you accept this as your invitation to rediscover the truth, wonder and mystery of the Catholic faith.

As your brothers and sisters in our worldwide Catholic family, we want you back. We've missed you, and our Church is not the same without you.

Regardless of why you left or got out of the habit of going to Mass, you can always come home and return to the practice of the sacraments and the fullness of relationship with Jesus Christ and the Church he founded.

We are Catholic. Welcome home.

The Eucharist

In the midst of the roaring waves of today's times, Jesus Christ invites us to return to the Source and Summit of our faith—His Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist.

Merry Christmas! Echos of those original glad tidings of great joy announced by angels to the lowly shepherds are sounding through hearts around the world today. How much more wonderful to celebrate the Incarnation: that God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him might not perish but might have eternal life (Jn 3:16).

Let's start 2023 as faithful disciples of Jesus by inviting back those of us who have stepped away from the Mass. To return back to the fulness of our faith, the wonderful gift of Jesus' love in the Eucharist.

Eternal life is available to us who believe, and this life we seek is made possible now through Jesus' sacramental presence in the Eucharist. May Jesus, our Infant King, captivate all of our hearts in a new way this Christmas as we gaze upon his Eucharistic presence with Mary, and may we in turn allow ourselves to radiate his glorious light to the whole world!

FALL DEEPER IN LOVE WITH CHRIST IN THE NEW YEAR

At the center of all we do as Catholics must be a close and personal relationship with Jesus. He offers to each of us a deep, intimate, "I love you forever" kind of relationship. Make time to fall deeper in love with Christ:

T-Talk: Prayer is an amazing privilege. Through it, we have an open invitation: "Call to me, and I will answer you" (Jeremiah 33:3). We have a promise that He hears us: "When you call me, and come and pray to me, I will listen to you" (Jeremiah 29:12). The God of the universe wants to hear from you.

I-Intimacy: To love Christ, we must know Him. In Scripture, God tells us who He is (Exodus 34:6), how He feels about us (Isaiah 43:4), what He desires for us (Luke 12:32), and how being His will make us happy (Matthew 5-7). Make Scripture a part of every day.

M-Meet Him: Relationships grow through shared experiences. We meet Jesus in prayer, Scripture, the Sacraments, and above all, during the Mass.

E-Everything For Love: St Thérèse of Lisieux discovered that she could delight God by simply picking up a pin out of love. He wants to hear us, His beloveds, say, "I love you, too," in words and actions. Essential to falling in love with God is making time for Him.

A man decided to go ice fishing. Walking onto the frozen surface, he pitched his tent, propped up his fishing rod, and started to pick at the ice. Suddenly, a booming voice rang out: "THERE ARE NO FISH UNDER THE ICE!"

Startled, the man stopped and looked around. Seeing no one, he shrugged his shoulder and started to pick at the ice again. The voice returned: "THERE ARE NO FISH UNDER THE ICE!"

Feeling a bit spooked, the man looked up and said, "God, is that You?"

"No," the voice responded. "I'M THE MANAGER OF THIS RINK, TALKING TO YOU ON THE PUBLIC ADDRESS SYSTEM!"

A man was hiking on a nature trail when a bear appeared. The bear gave chase, so the man clambered up the nearest tree. But as he was climbing, he slipped and fell at the feet of the beast.

"Lord, please let this be a Christian bear." The man gasped.

And the bear said, "Heavenly Father, I thank You for this food."
