St. Vincent DePaul Update

St. Peter's/St. Joseph Conference of St. Vincent de Paul had a busy year. Our treasurer has submitted the report for fiscal 2022 (which ended 10/1/22). Here's what our group of Vincentians accomplished, by the grace of God as well as the very generous support of our parishioners:

Number of Members: 11

Church/Poor Box Donations: $19,789

Expenses for Those We Serve (including twinning): $24,463

Number of home visits: 86

Number of people helped: 171

This ministry has been a vital part of the Catholic Church since St. Louise de Marillac and St. Vincent de Paul began their good works in the 17th Century. We are seeking people who feel called to minister to the poor to expand what our conference can accomplish this year.

If you would like to know more, please contact us through email: StPeters.svdp@gmail.com. There is a conference training on March 4, so now is a very good time to get acquainted with this ministry.

Coming soon: Look for brochures with more information in the St. Peter's narthex.

Welcome
Glad you're here!

There is no better way to start the New Year than to welcome New Parishioners!

Donald and Cynthia Kramer

registered online and we're so glad they did!

We kindly ask that everyone who faithfully comes to Mass at St. Peter's, be registered. It's easy!

Simply call the parish office or visit us online at:

StPeterCatholicChurch.org

It's time to give to Caesar what is Caesar's! To expedite the filing of your 2022 taxes, all parishioners will receive a statement of their financial contributions to St. Peter's by the end of January. Upon receipt, review the information. Should you have evidence that an error has been made, kindly call our Business Manager, Mary Kay, at 815-675-2288 x205 and she will be happy to correct it. However, if you have decided to double your contributions to St. Peter's in 2023, Fr. Joe will be thrilled to immediately take your call!

When you pray the rosary in public, other people just see you with beads, but imagine the Virgin Mother seeing you with a bouquet of roses! The devil, on the other hand, sees you with a spiritual weapon. Always have a rosary with you, and whenever you pray it, you're holding the hand of Mary.

Every weekend, Panera Bread makes a Day-End-Dough-Nation to St. Peter's! Made just the day before, we've got bagels, rolls, Danish pastries, French bread, whole wheat and all grain, Ciabatta bread and sour dough! Brought to our Church hall every Friday morning, everything is available while supply lasts. So, stop by and take some home, or to someone you know who is on a tight budget. God bless Panera and our Women's Ministry!

Our Sanctuary Lamp burns from January 15th through January 28th for † Scholle & Sompel Family. May this light which reminds us of Jesus' True Presence in the Sanctuary Welcome them into eternal peace.

Showing Up

I broke my foot once, when my second child was only 12 weeks old, and I was about to move houses. For six weeks I was confined to a chair, a shrieking newborn in my arms, a toddler running circles around me, and my right foot rendered useless by a plaster cast. I couldn't do anything without assistance. I couldn't eat or get a drink or change my clothes or feed my children.

My family was in dire straits. A lot of people offered help, but there was a core group of friends and family members who really saved us.

These are the people who turned up in my driveway with empty vans and cooked meals. These are the people who blocked off their Saturdays to haul furniture, mow our lawn, and run after unruly kids. These are the people who said: "Here I am. Give me a job."

If you've ever really, really needed another person's help, you know that "showing up" means more than saying: "Let me know what you need." It means saying: "I'm already here. Tell me what to do."

So often, I pay lip service to the idea of submission. "What do you want, God?" I ask, and I secretly hope that what He wants isn't one of those things that I'm not willing to give.

What if I really strove to "show up" for God? What if I was ready to give what He asks of me, whatever it is?

Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will.

An old country pastor traveled to the city to pray with a parishioner who was in the hospital.

It had been some time since the pastor had visited this particular hospital, and he sensed how much things had changed since his last visit. When a technician followed the pastor onto the elevator, wheeling a large medical looking machine covered with tubes, wires, and dials, the pastor commented, "Boy, would I hate to be hooked up to that thing."

"So would I," replied the technician. "It's an industrial floor cleaner."

Between services, a Church member noticed a passing driver flick a cigarette out of his window into some shrubbery on the Church property. The bush smoldered then burst into flame.

The Church member ran to the office, phoned the fire department, explained the situation, and asked for help.

"You mean to tell me there's a burning bush on the Church lawn," the dispatcher replied, "and you want us to put it out?"
