Our Congratulations

and prayerful best wishes go to

Pat & Frank Leali,

who celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary on January 18th!

Over the course of their married life,
they continue to lean on each other,
their faith in Christ
and their love for His Church.

They are a model and blessing for us!

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

When Jesus called Simon and Andrew, they left "at once" to follow Him; when He called James and John, they did likewise. St. Peter, St. Andrew, St. James and St. John, pray for us, that God will grant us similar courage and clarity when called by Christ.

RECONCILE YOURSELF WITH YOUR FATHER!

CONFESSIONS

Every Saturday

from 3:00 until 3:45 p.m.

Or call the Parish Office to schedule an appointment with Father!

Unfortunately, due to lack of participation since last November, Kids For Christ is now discontinued and no longer available. We are grateful to Ashley Gordon, who for years, faithfully ran the program which brought joy to many children and allowed their parents to peacefully celebrate the 9:00 Mass.

Official Newspaper of the Catholic Diocese of Rockford

At a time when we need Christ the most, there are so many distractions that can keep us from staying close to Him, like family responsibilities, social activities and just trying to stay ahead of the bills, to name a few, and fueling our faith has never been more important! Going to Mass with other committed Catholics, is certainly the best way to be with our Lord. And another way is by feeding our mind and spirit with solid, faith-based reading! Our diocesan newspaper, The Observer helps provide that!

Ours is an award-winning newspaper that provides a link between our local parishes and our beautiful Catholic faith. The columns and news it provides can help us respond to the challenges we, Catholics, face in a sometime weary world. If you are a current subscriber, will you renew your subscription? If you are not a subscriber, now is your chance! The cost is only $28 for an entire year and you can even choose print, digital or both! Subscribing online is easy!

Simply visit observer.rockforddiocese.org and click on "About Us" found at the top of the site.

Don't delay. Do it today!

The Blessed Sacrament is exposed for Adoration every weekend from 5:00 pm on Saturday until 6:45 am on Sunday. Will you consider making a commitment of just one hour, every weekend, to pray before the Lord of Hosts? In order for this important and cherished ministry to continue, Fr. Joe needs the assurance that responsible people are always present and our Lord is never being left alone.

Pray about it, and if you have what it takes to be a Prayer Warrior, call Carrie Shannon at 815-687-6734 or Fr. Joe at 815-675-2288.

Roe v. Wade at 50 After Dobbs

Though this Sunday marks the anniversary of Roe v. Wade, which guaranteed mothers the right to abort their unborn child, that court decision didn't make it to fifty years. Praise God! Rather, in answer to five decades of prayer and perseverance, the Lord granted America a reprieve from that court decision which opened abortion on demand to all fifty states. Unfortunately, it still remains a blood sacrament in our country, but with the Dobbs decision, access to abortion is slipping. What we cannot do at this critical time is let our guard down and take a break, we must continue praying, working, and planning for its demise.

As people who believe in the sanctity of every human life, we need to know facts in order to win this battle. We need to know the facts about human development and the science of when life begins. We should educate ourselves about the harms of abortion. As pro-lifers, we need to be ready to correct the plethora of misinformation that most people are being fed.

To that end, the most important thing we can do is bend our knees in supplication to God, asking for the end to the brutal practice of abortion.

We all need to pray without ceasing and not hesitate to ask our friends to join us. Can you imagine what could happen if everyone who wants to end abortion joined together? Can you imagine what would happen if every Christian, in America, was committed to praying and fasting? What would happen if tens or hundreds of MILLIONS of Americans prayed for an end to abortion? Always remember, with God, ALL THINGS are possible. Knowing the facts and fasting and praying is worth saving lives!

This a good opportunity to earn service hours, too!

On Sunday, February 5th our 1st Communicants will be distributing a loaf of bread with their Prayer Pal card

What exactly is a "Prayer Pal?"

A "Prayer Pal" is a parishioner who promises to pray for a child and their family during this Sacramental year. You will be given a loaf of bread symbolizing the Eucharist. Although the bread the children are learning about, as stated by the USCCB, the transformed bread and wine are truly the Body and Blood of Christ and are not merely symbols. When Christ said, "This is My body" and "This is My blood," the bread and wine are transubstantiated. Though the bread and wine appear the same to our senses, they are actually the real body and blood of Jesus! By giving the bread and the prayer card and by you accepting the bread and the card, the hope is that you will form a spiritual bond with your Prayer Pal from now through the Sacrament of Confirmation. Once this bond begins, allow the movements of the Holy Spirit to draw you closer in prayer and presence with your Prayer Pal.

Our Sanctuary Lamp burns from January 15th through January 28th for † Scholle & Sompel Family
May this light which reminds us of Jesus' True Presence in the Sanctuary Welcome them into eternal peace.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, we place into your hands, all fellow parishioners we know and love, who are ill or injured and in need of Your healing touch. Jesus, be with them all, especially:

Formed.org is Good and Faithful Catholic Media

This documentary sheds light on “one story” of the Black Catholic experience—an experience unknown to many in our Church. It highlights the joy, pain and struggles that are faced in the Black Catholic community and shows how this experience is a “gift to the church,” as Sr. Thea Bowman said.

The Art of Retreat

Social media has made it far too easy for me to share my opinion.

These virtual spaces tend to strip our words of all empathy. Someone will post something that I think is nonsense, and I just have to tell them why — and quickly! Hurry! Before they delete it!

Nine times out of ten, when the dust is settled, I find that I've said too much and listened too little.

As I've gotten older, the motto I try (not always successfully) to live by is this: You do not have to be on the attack all of the time, even if it's for what you think is the truth.

I can't help but notice that the first thing Jesus does when he hears of the arrest of John the Baptist is to retreat. He doesn't punch a hole in a wall or take to the streets in protest. He withdraws.

And what does he do after withdrawing? A lot of praying, I would imagine. A lot of thinking, a lot of reflecting. A lot of listening to the voice of his Father.

Sometimes we mistake stillness with vulnerability. But Christ shows us that to withdraw, to contemplate, can actually be a tremendous show of strength. Even the fiercest dogs wait for the command of their master before they act.

For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel, and not with the wisdom of human eloquence. — 1 Corinthians 1:17

A Pastor was delivering a strong message on the evils of alcohol. Rather loudly he said, "If I had all the wine in the world, I'd dump it in the river." Even louder he declared, "If I had all the beer in the world, I'd dump it in the river." Finally he pounded his fist on the pulpit and ended his sermon by exclaiming. "If I had all the whiskey in the world, I'd dump it in the river."

The music director rose for the final hymn to be sung and said with a crooked grin, "Please turn to hymn 108, 'Shall We Gather at the River?'"

When a brand-new priest arrived at his first parish, several of the "Great Old Saints" who had been waiting to die did just that. Consequently, in four weeks the new priest did eight funerals. Because he was so busy and exhausted, he did not have time to write his regular Sunday homily—and so he used the homily from the Sunday before, three more times. When members of the parish complained to the bishop, the bishop asked what the homily was about. The members paused, scratching their heads. The bishop said, "He better use it one more time."

Simple morality dictates that unless and until someone can prove the unborn human is not alive, we must give it the benefit of the doubt and assume it is (alive). And, thus, it should be entitled to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

— Ronald Reagan —
