

St. Peter's Church

OF SPRING GROVE, IL

You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father.”

~ Matthew 5:14-16 ~

BE THE SALT
OF
THE WORLD

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We can't be afraid to season our lives with the truth, even if we face a world of picky eaters. Christians, don't be afraid of flavor!

Or

It's hard to shine the light of truth in a world that so often prefers darkness. But God has built His city on a hill, not a valley. His glory, by definition, exists to be proclaimed, as salt exists to give flavor.

Prayers and Squares Meeting

Thursday, February 9th at 1:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall

Consider spending some of your time these cold days of winter with a fun group of ladies who make shawls and blankets.

If you don't know how to knit or crochet, no worries, the ladies will teach you all the skills you need.

Nothing too difficult, you just need to be able to use a pair of scissors and tie a knot.

That's it!

If you already know how, that's great news, the ladies could definitely use your skills.

If you would like a blanket or shawl, or have any questions, please contact Elaine at 815-678-9932

Let the light of Christ
that we carry within us
drive away the darkness of fear and sadness.

Question:

What is the “Miraculous Medal” and why is it called that?

Answer:

The medal of the Immaculate Conception that has come to be called simply the “Miraculous Medal” dates back to an apparition of Mary to Saint Catherine Laboure, who was then a novice sister with the Daughters of Charity. On November 27, 1830, Our Lady appeared to her, standing on a globe, with shafts of light streaming from her hands and the words, “O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee,” surrounding the image. In the same vision, Catherine saw a capital “M” with a cross above it and below two hearts. Catherine seemed to hear a voice telling her to have what she saw struck as a medal and a promise that those who wore the medal would have the protection and intercession of the Mother of God. The first 1,500 medals were distributed in 1832. Many miraculous favors were attributed to the use of the medal.

Saint Catherine’s “Miraculous Medal” is among the recognizable and popular symbols of modern Catholicism. Reflecting on its widespread use, the 2001 Vatican document, “Directory of Popular Piety and Liturgy,” observes that the medal “recalls the mystery of Redemption, the love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and of the Sorrowful Heart of Mary. It signifies the mediatory role of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the mystery of the Church, the relationship between Heaven and earth, this life and eternal life.”

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

If ...

It’s a surprising little word — if. For such a short word, it holds an abundance of excuses.

Personally, I could buy a new car if I had a dollar for every time I used the word “if” to explain away my own flaws. “If I wasn’t so tired. If we had more money. If the kids weren’t always on my last nerve. If I had more talent. If life wasn’t so hard.”

If, if, if.

I don’t always feel like being the salt of the earth. Can’t someone else season the dish? Sometimes it’s more than I want to give, more than I want to do, more than I want to be. Sharing my bread, sheltering the oppressed, clothing the naked, and accompanying my neighbor — doing these things in the literal or figurative sense can be completely exhausting. Mediocrity is so easy. It’s so comfortable. But if. It looms again, that short but powerful word.

“If” can be deep with excuses, but it can also be wide with possibility. If I bring it all to God. If I stop relying on my own abilities. If I prayed more than I talked. If I make my heart firm. If my faith does not rest on human wisdom.

If not me, who? If not now, when?

“You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden.” — Matthew 5:14
