On Ash Wednesday, parishioners received a bank in which they could place their Lenten Alms. The money collected supports the Justice Development & Peace Commission in Maiduguri, Nigeria. This commission helps the victims of the terrorists Boko Haram.

If you intend to return your banks, we kindly ask that you do so by next Sunday. We cannot delay, any longer, sending the financial help they desperately need. Otherwise, we recommend giving your Lenten Alms to Helping Hands Food Pantry, here in Spring Grove.

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Doubting Thomas is a mood, and we've all had it. We hang our every hope on this sign, that proof. We challenge God: "Make me believe." To each of us He extends His wounded hand, to each of us He shows His pierced side. He will always meet us in our unbelief.

Welcome

we are so pleased to welcome*

Are you registered? If not, please consider doing so because it helps us serve you better. Simply visit our parish website and register online.

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." (Jn 20:19)

In just two weeks, Father Joe will be introducing the Diocesan Appeal for 2023. If you are a newly registered member of our parish community, this is the only time of the year when our pastor talks about Catholic stewardship and solicits our financial support. Each year, all parishes in Northern Illinois are assessed a goal or target amount that needs to be reached. It is based on the previous year's ordinary income and this year we need to raise $52,941. Should we fail to reach our goal, the remaining balance due will need to be withdrawn from our parish savings. However, every dollar exceeding the $52,941 will be returned to St. Peter's to be used for our own ministries and the upkeep of our facilities. Look for more detailed information from Msgr. Joe and Bishop Malloy in your mailbox.

Many parishioners have seen Fr. Tom Moran's name on our prayer list and have been inquiring about his health. Father is now living at St. Benedict Village in Niles because he needs assistance 24/7. We know he would love to hear from you! Mailing him a card or short note and assuring Father Tom of your thoughts and prayers, would make his day a lot brighter! His address is:

"My parish priest, when I was a kid, had been called to the hospital because there was a man who was dying. The man said, 'Father, I was raised Catholic, but I have been so far from the Church my entire life. I made a complete shipwreck of my life. But when I was a kid, someone told me that if I just pray the Hail Mary three times every day, Mary will not let you die without the mercy of God. See, my life has been such a mess, but that's what I've done. I just turned to Mary with the hope that Mary will not let me die without the mercy of God.'

And my priest looked at this man and simply said, "And here I am." And he gave him confession and the Anointing of the Sick and Holy Communion. And Mary walked that man into the throne room of the Father."

The Doors We Lock

As a child, and even for a while as a teenager, I experienced an enormous amount of anxiety whenever I went to confession. For so many years I feared it. For so many years I waited in the confession line trembling, feeling sick to my stomach.

In the upper room after Christ's Passion and death, the anxiety of the disciples was so strong that they locked themselves away. But still Christ found a way into their midst. He would not be prevented from bringing mercy and hope to a place shrouded in despair. No door barred in a moment of fear could keep him out.

This is the genius of the sacrament of Reconciliation — and of all sacraments, really. Here we are, restricted in so many ways by an existence that is woefully physical. We feel fear, and our body reacts, just as we feel anger and our body reacts.

How can God deliver mercy to us in this flesh-bound state? Through that very flesh which can feel so confining. Through confession, which requires a physical action, and the physical participation not just of the penitent but of the priest.

I don't know how or why my anxiety around the sacrament has lessened over the years. Sometimes, I still feel it come roaring back unexpectedly, and maybe one day it will come back to stay. It doesn't surprise me: after all, I am in the flesh, and I will, as Peter says today, "suffer through various trials." But in all of them Christ will find me. He will not be kept away.

Let the house of Aaron say, "His mercy endures forever." — Psalm 118:3

Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

"How are things going, Pastor?" the deacon asked. "Oh, I'm still a little long-winded, I guess," replied the pastor. "I don't mind when I see people checking their watches during the homily, but it really bothers me when they hold them up to their ears to make sure they're still ticking!"

*An Encounter With Self
Christ and Others*

In today's world can Christianity penetrate the many areas of secular life? Can it live there? Can it grow there? Can it transform the world in a way that is more fruitful than the past and in keeping with the times?

The Cursillo Movement thinks so, and yet it proposes no new type of spirituality, but simply a method through which one's spirituality may be developed, lived and shared in any area of human life.

- If you are looking for a more fulfilling, peaceful, and joyful life?
- If you desire to have a closer relationship with God?
- If you want to meet others with whom you can share your journey of faith?

Then you are invited to come and see, and to seek a deeper relationship with God, with self, and with others within the framework of a supportive Catholic community.
