LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

It wasn't until Christ spoke the words of blessing over the bread that the eyes of the disciples were opened, and they saw Him for who He was—God in flesh and blood before them. The Eucharist makes real what we otherwise would fail to see.

Next weekend, Father Joe will 'officially' introduce this year's Diocesan Appeal. There are numerous reasons why support of the annual appeal is so important, and among those reasons is that it directly benefits our St. Peter family! It's true. Here, in Spring Grove, we utilize many pastoral and educational services provided by the diocese. We receive help from the Office of Divine Worship, Catholic Charities and we even rely on IT support from the diocese! And that's naming only a few!

Another reason why our participation is important is because unless we meet our goal of $52,941, any remaining amount due would be withdrawn from our savings account. However, all money received over and above our goal, will be returned to St. Peter and used for our own ministries and parish upkeep. Everyone's support is needed!

Save the Date!

Faith, Family & Fellowship Night Saturday, May 6th

The 4th and final Faith, Family & Fellowship event for this school year is coming soon!

Plan to attend the 4:00 pm Mass with our Faith Community and then join together for the rest of the evening in the Parish Hall for some Faith, Family & Fun time.

Ending at approximately 6:30 pm!

May is devoted to Our Blessed Mother.

In honor of Our Lady of Fatima, we will learn important facts surrounding this feast day, make a rosary and process out to the Our Lady of Fatima Shrine and present Mary with a flower for her garden.

If you are a Faith Formation Family, please check your email and RSVP for this event A.S.A.P.

CONFESSIONS ARE HEARD

Every Saturday from 3:00 p.m. until 3:45 p.m.

Or call the Parish Office to schedule an appointment!

Catholics confess their sins to priests because priests act as God's duly authorized ambassadors. "Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed" (James 5:16).

A young cowboy was explaining to the boys back at the ranch about his first visit to church.

"When I got there, they had me park my truck in the corral," he began.

"You mean the parking lot," interrupted a more worldly, wise cowboy.

"I walked up the trail to the door," the first cowboy continued.

"The sidewalk," the second corrected.

"Inside the door, I was met by this dude," the first went on.

"Probably an usher," the second explained.

"Well, the usher led me down the chute," the first said.

"You mean the aisle," the second corrected again.

"Then he had me sit in a stall," the first continued.

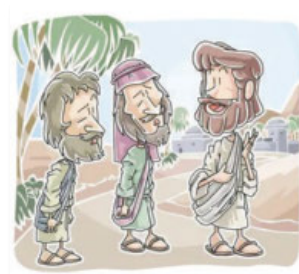

"Pew," the second cowboy said.

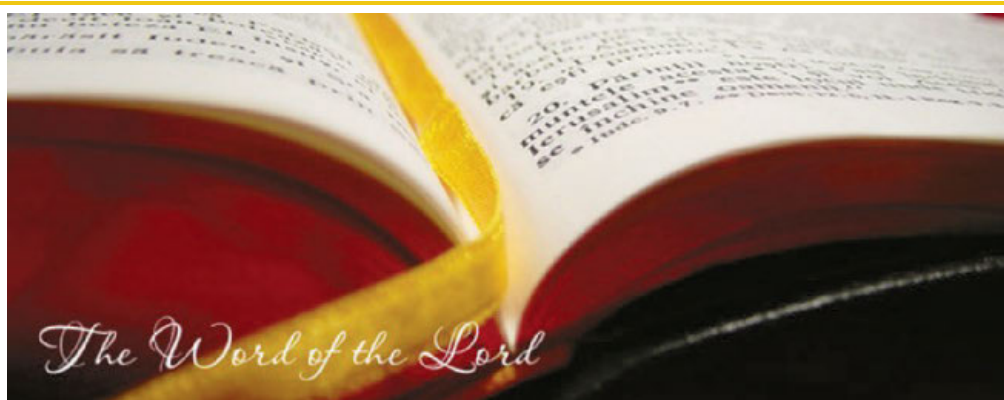

"Yeah," recalled the first, "that's what the lady beside me said."

The Road To Emmaus

"Were not our hearts burning within us while
He spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?"

The Lord God has given me a well-trained tongue, that I may know how to speak to the weary a word that will rouse them. Isaiah 50:4

One of the most visible roles in the Mass is that of a Lector and it is also one of the most important, because it is through the lector that the Word of God is proclaimed to people in the New and Old Testaments. There's almost a 'sacredness' to that responsibility, because how a lector proclaims God's Word can bring nearly as much comfort to a community as the Word itself.

A lector who truly wants to be effective will always study and pray the Scriptures before each liturgical assignment. It is prayer and practice that will separate a person who merely reads from one who genuinely proclaims. They should have a clear and steady voice, and utilizing the reading skills they were taught since they were in grade school, they should easily develop a technique and style that is personal and effective.

For our seasoned lectors, as well as parishioners who are eager to learn more about this vital ministry, an evening workshop will be held on Tuesday May 9th beginning at 7:00 pm in the church.

This will not be a "been-there-done-that" type of meeting that covers the same 'ol topics on procedures and protocol. Our presenter for the 1 hour meeting will be John McGrath, who was the Director of Educational Services for our Diocese for over 32 years! He is a fantastic, engaging teacher and will talk about the spirituality of the ministry, responsibilities away from the ambo as well as sharing some practical aspects that have proven to be very effective.

We hope you will come!

Attention St. Peter's Athletes

We are starting softball again beginning on Monday, May 1st and looking for players who would like to come out and have some fun with fellow parishioners and share fellowship with neighboring churches.

Games are played Monday evenings at 6:30 pm, 7:30 pm or 8:30 pm at the township (behind the Moose Lodge) or other nearby parks.

Anyone who is interested can contact Tom Boettjer at 773-875-3976.

Thank you for your time and PLAY BALL!

What you Wear To Mass Makes A Statement!

The way you dress for Mass is a statement to yourself and to others around you. Ask yourself the important question as you dress yourself to attend Mass.

Is the Mass just another activity or is it really important to you?

As Catholics, we believe in the Incarnation, so allowing the spiritual to be manifested into the physical is what makes dressing for Mass so meaningful.

You're going to Mass to learn, to grow spiritually, to come into the REAL PRESENCE of JESUS.

Why not begin by showing your family, friends, and neighbors just how extraordinary Mass is from head to toe (freshly combed hair and dress shoes) No beachwear, No shorts, No T-shirts, No clothes that are revealing!

Others around you, will see the respect and reverence and understand that this isn't just a casual gathering.

The Mass is to be treated HONORABLY, and the external expression of our spiritual faith is evangelical; it teaches; it spreads the Good News of Christ to ourselves, our families, friends and others who witness our efforts of neatness and attention to detail.

Dressing up for Mass isn't a fashion competition, as if the better you dress, the holier you are. Rather, it's a way for each person to dress differently than their ordinary attire for school, for football/baseball games or for even lazy Sunday afternoons. Because Mass is not ordinary; it's Extraordinary!

Keep in mind from the moment you start getting dressed for Mass you are preparing your hearts for Communion with your Savior, which calls for your utmost reverence and gratitude.

PROJECT RACHEL

A MESSAGE TO THOSE IN NEED OF POST-ABORTIVE HEALING

I would now like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion. The Church is aware of the many factors which may have influenced your decision, and she does not doubt that in many cases it was a painful and even shattering decision. The wound in your heart may not yet have healed. Certainly what happened was and remains terribly wrong. But do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope. Try rather to understand what happened and face it honestly. If you have not already done so, give yourselves over with humility and trust to repentance. The Father of mercies is ready to give you his forgiveness and his peace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. To the same Father and his mercy you can with sure hope entrust your child. With the friendly and expert help and advice of other people, and as a result of your own painful experience, you can be among the most eloquent defenders of everyone's right to life. Through your commitment to life, whether by accepting the birth of other children or by welcoming and caring for those most in need of someone to be close to them, you will become promoters of a new way of looking at human life.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

"I Am Not Afraid — I Was Born to Do This."

Have you ever felt like you weren't doing the work you should be doing?

We have all had jobs that leave us feeling unfulfilled. Bored. Dreading the next day. We may even experience a sensation of unfamiliarity, of being unable to recognize ourselves.

Most of us have also been lucky enough to have a job that we love — a vocation, a calling that makes us look in the mirror and think, This is who I'm supposed to be. I recognize this person.

For me, that work is the work of marriage and motherhood. The hours are terrible, the pay is even worse, and my coworkers are frequently disappointed in me — but it doesn't matter. When I look in the mirror every morning and see my tired, wrinkled face gazing back, choruses of "I said I don't want the BLUE SHIRT, MOMMY, ugh!" and "Honey, I've got an early meeting, I'm so sorry but I have to run," ringing in the background, I think to myself: I recognize this girl. She was born to do this.

Christ's own disciples did not recognize him on the road to Emmaus. It wasn't until he took the bread and broke it that their eyes were opened, and they realized they had known it all along — "Were not our hearts burning within us?"

In that moment, Christ was doing the very work he was born to do, making the sacrifice.

I don't know what kind of vocation you are called to. I don't know what kind of work reveals your true self. But I hope that whatever work you are doing, you can look in the mirror and feel your heart burning within you.

"He was made known to them in the breaking of bread." — Luke 24:35

Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

A PRAYER FOR THOSE WHO ARE WEAK, SUFFERING AND VULNERABLE.

LOVING GOD, YOU ARE ALWAYS NEAR TO US, ESPECIALLY WHEN WE ARE WEAK, SUFFERING AND VULNERABLE.

Reach out to those who experience mental illness. Lift their burdens, calm their anxiety, and quiet their fears. Surround them with your healing presence that they may know that they are not alone. We ask this through the intercession of Our Lady of Lourdes and in the name of your Son, Jesus and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. AMEN.
