LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The Christian life does not require wisdom, charisma, or strength – no, quite the opposite. To be Christian, we must embrace our faults, our littleness, our shortcomings – gather them up, and lay them all at the feet of Jesus. There, they will be transformed.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH OF SPRING GROVE, IL WOMAN OF INSPIRATION 2023

It is a great honor and pleasure to announce Dorothy Scichowski as St. Peter's Church of Spring Grove's Woman of Inspiration. There are many reasons that qualify her for this honor. She has been a member of the parish for 30+ years, where she's been a sacristan and helps to set up for daily Masses and makes sure the sacred vessels are cleaned and polished. She has been a participant of the Adoration team since it started at St. Peter's. She attends many of the Bible studies offered, and attends daily Mass and the Rosary. She has been an active member of the Women's Ministry for many years. She is always willing to help out wherever she is needed. In her younger days, she was married to Frances, the love of her life, and God had blessed them with 3 children. She is a POWERFUL Prayer Warrior and often leads by example in our parish community! She is a true inspiration for all, and we couldn't be more proud to call her this year's Woman of Inspiration for St. Peter's Church of Spring Grove.

Donna Polanek

was received into paradise on Sunday, June 25th.

A Mass of Resurrection will be Celebrated for her at 11 am on July 26th.

In Christian charity, kindly pray for her eternal rest.

Eternal rest grant unto Donna, O Lord, and let your perpetual light shine upon her. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

What's E.T. short for?

Q&A

"After three days they found [Jesus] in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking questions, and all who heard Him were astounded at His understanding and His answers" (Lk 2:46-47).

Jesus captivated crowds by His teachings. "When He saw the crowds, He went up the mountain, and after He had sat down, His disciples came to Him. He began to teach them..." (Mt 5:1-2). "He was praying in a certain place, and when He had finished, one of His disciples said to Him, 'Lord, teach us to pray just as John taught His disciples.' He said to them, 'When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread and forgive us our sins for we ourselves forgive everyone in debt to us, and do not subject us to the final test'" (Lk 11:1-4).

At the heart of the Church's life is the Passion, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension of Jesus, represented for us in the Holy Eucharist (see Ecclesia de Eucharistia, no. 3). Yet Christ came not only to suffer, die, and rise again for our salvation; He also came to instruct us on how to live, how to pray, and most importantly, how to love as He loves us.

We all need this continual formation in the sacrament of love, the Holy Eucharist, so that we can be more effective servants of our Lord.

Ushers Needed

There is much truth behind the old saying that there is only one chance to make a good first impression. That is why our Church has a responsibility to make sure that people's first impression of St Peter's is never left to chance! That is one of the primary duties of our ushers, who serve our parishioners and guests during weekend Masses and on Holy Days of Obligation.

In addition to the more familiar tasks of passing the collection baskets at Mass and distributing church bulletins afterward, our ushers also:

- Show up early enough to greet parishioners and visitors as they come into church.
- Assist anyone looking for a seat, if help is needed.
- Offer assistance to people with disabilities and if requested, arrange with the priest to have Holy Communion brought to their pew.
- Prior to Mass beginning, if the Offertory Gifts are placed in the back of church, invite two congregants to bring them forward at the appropriate time.

Our faith community is open to both men and women serving in this important capacity. For more information, contact Chad Franckowiak at chadfranco@gmail.com or Father Joe at 815-675-2288 ext. 201

Bread is like the sun.
It rises in the yeast and sets in the waist.

The Presbyterian church called a meeting to decide what to do about their squirrel infestation. After much prayer and consideration, they concluded that the squirrels were predestined to be there, and they should not interfere with God's divine will.

At the Baptist church, the squirrels had taken an interest in the baptistry. The deacons met and decided to put a water-slide on the baptistry and let the squirrels drown themselves. The squirrels liked the slide and, unfortunately, knew instinctively how to swim, so twice as many squirrels showed up the following week.

The Lutheran church decided that they were not in a position to harm any of God's creatures. So, they humanely trapped their squirrels and set them free near the Baptist church. Two weeks later, the squirrels were back when the Baptists took down the water-slide.

The Episcopalians tried a much more unique path by setting out pans of whiskey around their church in an effort to kill the squirrels with alcohol poisoning. They sadly learned how much damage a band of drunk squirrels can do.

But the Catholic church came up with a more creative strategy! They baptized all the squirrels and made them members of the church. Now they only see them at Christmas and Easter.

Not much was heard from the Jewish synagogue. They took the first squirrel and circumcised him. They haven't seen a squirrel since.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

A Ballad of Flesh and Spirit

"My yoke is easy and my burden is light," says the man hanging from a cross. And if we only went on what we see with our eyes — flesh driven through by nails and sword, swollen from beating and inches from expiration — it would seem like a joke.

I'll tell you something we all know: this life on earth is hard. It's either too long or it's too short. It's frequently painful. It's riddled with problems that seem to make no sense. It is, as Dickens wrote, "made of ever so many partings welded together."

But it's also shockingly, senselessly beautiful. It is full of physical experiences of love, joy, and peace that are so powerful they leave you breathless.

It is both these things — good and bad, hard and wonderful, just as we are both body and soul, spirit and flesh.

No one knows the Father except the Son, who entered into our bodily existence to free us from enslavement to it. No one knows the Son except the Father, and the means by which they know one another — the love passing between them, the Third Person himself — has been shared with us, has made its dwelling within us through baptism.

"Brothers and sisters, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live according to the flesh."
— Romans 8:12

Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman
