LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God is greater than this world, and His truth is stronger than all its ideologies. Remember that no matter how we vote, who we agree with or what our background is, we belong to Him alone.

The following unedited note was received on October 12th from Sr. Gunda, OSB on behalf of the African Benedictine Sisters of Ndanda in Tanzania.

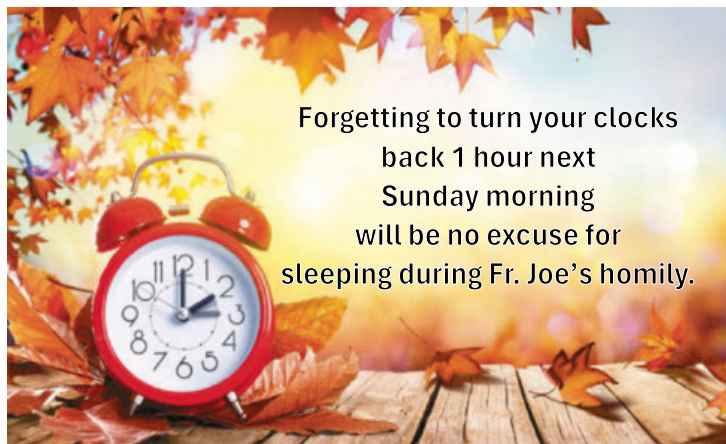

Dear Rev. Msgr. Joseph F. Jarmoluk and the Parishioners,

On behalf of my community, and the people we serve, I Sr. Donatha Gunda, I would like to express my sincere gratitude for your generous heart for the sum of $6,558.00 from your donation. We appreciated your kindness and may God bless and reward you abundantly. "Thank you for taking time to help us with our challenges that we face in the community especially, for the orphans and street children, pregnancy mothers and unborn babies that led very difficult to do our services. However, with your support you made the difference. Our gratitude is boundless and thank you for reaching out. I hope this simple thanks note of appreciation means a lot.

THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU!

Sincerely, yours in Christ.

Sr. Donatha Gunda, OSB

Forgetting to turn your clocks back 1 hour next

We gratefully recognize and honor our beloved parishioners, who have made a sacrificial gift to this year's Diocesan Appeal.*

Altar Servers Needed

Whether you're an adult or young parishioner, if you come to Mass every weekend and truly believe that the Eucharist is Jesus, if you are dependable, reverent and always want to do your best for God, would you consider becoming an Altar Server at St. Peter's? If you have questions or would like to join this important ministry, please call Tony Rygiel at 815-482-6618.

All RBCHS student's received their own personal copies of the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution booklets on September 17th for Constitution Day. These were donated to RBCHS from your St. Peter's, Knights of Columbus.

One day, an old man told his grandson to behave, and the young boy told his grandpa that he would be good if he gave him a quarter. "You young whippersnapper," the old man said, "when I was your age I was good for nothing!"

St. Peter's is looking for a new Music Director

Harrison recently met with Father Joe and told him that he will be leaving St. Peter's because he wants to pursue opportunities in education. We wish Harrison the very best in his search, but now we also need to search for someone who will lead us in song!

If you know a talented musician who is available and interested in a great part-time position as our Director of Music, please leave their contact information with either Mary Kay or Father Joe at the parish office. Help us get the word out. And if all our parishioners say a prayer to St. Cecilia, patron saint of musicians and church choirs, that would be a great help, too!

A husband and wife in their 60's, were coming up on their 40th wedding anniversary. Knowing his wife loved antiques, he bought her a beautiful old brass oil lamp for the occasion. Well, as she unwrapped it, a genie appeared! Grateful for his freedom, he granted each of them a wish! The wife wished for an all expenses paid, first class cruise around the world with her husband. Shazam! In the blink of an eye, she was presented with tickets for the entire journey, plus expensive side trips, dinners and shopping! The husband, however, wished he had a female companion who was 30 years younger. The genie smiled. Shazam! Instantly, he turned 93 years old.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

With little more than a year until the United States' national elections, I find myself feeling, like many Catholics, both dread and energized. Dread, because our democratic republic can be a messy endeavor and campaigns a long, nasty, and unedifying slog; energized, because hope for positive societal change can be enticing and engaging. As a pastor, I see similar conflicting attitudes in those whom I serve. How can Catholics best engage our political arena in a way which is truly helpful and worthwhile?

This week's gospel reading offers wisdom in this regard. Jesus says, "Render therefore to Caesar the things are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." This riddle forces us to answer for ourselves a hidden question: what is the relationship between political and divine authority? Two common but false answers lead to mischief. If we answer that the two are equivalent, politics becomes our absolute authority. This happens whenever religion is slave to the state, as in the travesty of the pro-Nazi German Christian movement in the 1930s and 40s. It also usually occurs when there is an official state religion. If we answer that the two are totally unrelated, we end up with an unchecked aggressive secularist state as we often experience now. Thus, religion becomes a weak and private pastime.

What's a better alternative? At our best, Christians hold that political authority does indeed have its own legitimate autonomy but is nested within God's all-encompassing authority. Think, for example, of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s respect for politics while also being able to criticize unjust human laws because he recognized a higher heavenly law. In other words, Caesar owns politics — and God owns Caesar. So, we should allow Jesus' words to lead us to have a deep respect and willingness to peacefully engage in politics without making that engagement our religion. We bring our faith to bear on our politics knowing confidently that Caesar isn't God — but he is indeed God's.

— Father John Muir
