Get Your Little Blue Book for Advent

It's hard to believe that next weekend already marks the beginning of the Advent Season! Over the years, many parishioners have benefitted from using The Little Blue Book during this special season of grace! You will notice that the book is compact and easy to use, and filled with inspiring meditations that will guide you through the Advent and Christmas seasons! We thank our Knights of Columbus for purchasing these wonderful books for us to use, and should there be any additional copies left after this weekend, they can be picked up at the Parish Office and shared with your neighbors!

A true friend of St. Peter's Parish,
Rev. Thomas Moran,
Died on November 8th.

With gratitude and appreciation for his 52 years of priestly ministry in the Archdiocese of Chicago and with us, in Spring Grove, Pray that God give him a reward for his labors and eternal rest with Him.

Eternal rest grant unto Thomas, O Lord, and let your perpetual light shine upon him. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

Cemetery Maintenance

Before the snow falls, we kindly ask people to remove all spring and summer decorations from their loved one's graves. This includes (but not limited to) artificial flowers, rocks, statues, vases, shepherd hooks, cans & bottles. The cemetery is holy and we want to keep the grounds looking neat and pristine for all our deceased loved ones year-round! We also respectfully ask that personal mementos, left around the columbarium, be taken home. That helps us keep the walkways safe and clear of ice and snow. Everyone's cooperation before December 8th is appreciated!

Gospel Meditation

In May 2023, for the first time in almost three quarters of a century, a monarch was crowned in England. A few days later a friend of mine scoffed, "What a waste of time and energy! What is the point of a king?"

I'm a proud American who wants neither theocracy nor monarchical restoration. I like our democratic republic. But the coronation of King Charles reminded me of something needed in every person and community: confidence in the future. The king's most basic role is to symbolize the unity of the nation. In England, the Parliament members handle many of the practical duties of governance. But the king or queen can do what they cannot: embody in a single person the reality and future of a whole nation. To say, "this is our king" is to say, "we exist as a community, and we have a future." Kingship isn't primarily about the power of one person or family. It's about the enduring identity and unity of the whole.

To say Christ is our King is to say we exist as a people. We are one in Him. We are, and we will be as long as He is. And since He will be our Risen King forever, together we have a future filled with hope. Even the best countries will finally fall. But Christ and His Church will endure forever. What good news! It's not a waste of time to crown a king. We do it all the time. Let's be sure to crown the right one—the one whose kingdom never ends.

~ Father John Muir ~

The King Comes Holding a Mirror

Of all the many wonderful, thorough examinations of conscience I have come across, the one I normally utilize is very simple, and perfectly suited to someone like me who is not capable of profound thought at the end of the day.

It's just one very short question: Which Christ did I not recognize today?

The King always comes in disguise, and I know I miss him in so many ways every single day. I miss him in people ignored or dismissed. I miss him in opportunities avoided and in moments that could have turned into prayer but instead turned into phone-scrolling. I miss him when he is right in front of me, holding up a mirror and calling my name, begging for my conversion of heart.

The Christian life calls us to constant self-scrutiny. It's not a comfortable life, always thinking about what you could do better, but the Lord shepherds us rightly. His pastures have nothing to offer those who are perfect and strong.

He has gone in search of the lost. He has reclaimed those who have strayed, healed those who were injured, given rest to those who were weary.

We can't be followers of Christ if we are not willing to own our sins. God's mercy does not dismiss our sins, as if they never existed and were not important.

No, it does something far, far better — God's mercy absolves our sins. It sets us free from them. But to be truly free, you have to understand the tyranny of what once enslaved you.

"And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats."

— Matthew 25:32

Evangelize

Prayer, Invitation, Witness, Accompaniment

In the midst of our busy lives, it is no secret that our thoughts can easily be preoccupied with things other than prayer or our relationship with God. Perhaps we struggle with maintaining a daily prayer practice. So when we pause to take stock of our lives, where our attention is focused during the day-to-day, it's easy to see that God is sometimes "off to the side." Perhaps we take everything we have been given for granted, or maybe we are just not sure how to make Him the most important aspect of our lives. Just like cultivating a friendship takes active effort, so does our relationship with God. Just as watering a plant near its center allows the water to spread throughout the surrounding area, to its roots and the soil, thus making it fruitful and full, putting Jesus Christ, our King, at the center of our lives means that His goodness flows into everything else we say and do. Our lives and our hearts will grow in goodness and bear rich fruit.

"No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and [the world]"

(Luke 16:13).

Two eighty-year-old men had been friends since their Little League baseball days. One of them came down with a terminal illness and his best friend was with him by his deathbed.

"Will you do me a favor?" the healthy friend asked. "I'm hoping there is baseball in Heaven. When you get there, can you find out and let me know somehow?"

The dying man said, "We've been friends for almost all of our lives. I will try and get your answer to you."

Several days after the old man's death, his friend was sleeping when he had a vivid dream. His lifelong friend appeared to him and said, "There is definitely baseball in Heaven, my friend! The bad news is that you're pitching on Wednesday."
