Will you Light the candles on St. Peter's Advent Wreath?

It's hard to believe that Advent begins in just 3 weeks! We are looking for parishioners who would be honored to light the candles on our Advent Wreath at the start of every weekend Mass.

As you enter the front doors of our Church, you will find a sign-up board on your right. Simply choose which Mass you will be attending and kindly PRINT your FULL name and phone number. Father Joe will give you a reminder call and to thank you on behalf of the whole community!

Attention Lectors!

The 2024 Lector Workbooks have arrived!

Please stop by the Sacristy AFTER MASS on November 11/12 or November 18/19 to pick up your copy. After that time, they will be held for you at the Parish Office. If you need to make other arrangements, please contact Marcey at 815-675-2288 or Marcey.StPeter@gmail.com

The Pilgrim Rosary pilgrimrosary.com

A Pilgrim Rosary has started making its' way through St. Peter's Parish! Why? Because by praying these beads and meditating on the events of our Lord's life, which they represent, we can become even more spiritually united!

It's so easy to do. If someone passes the rosary on to you, pray it well and then scan the QR code attached to the rosary. Following the instructions, adding your name and the location where you prayed, which will then be visible on the website!

Don't hang on to it for a long time, either. The rosary is blessed and was touched to our 1st Class relic of the True Cross of Christ. The key is to "pray-it-forward" because we want to encourage as many people as we can to use this powerful weapon!

Who can Receive Holy Communion?

The Holy Eucharist is the most important of the seven sacraments because, in it, and in no other sacrament, we receive the very body and blood, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ! Not only that, but we also receive innumerable and precious graces through the reception of the Eucharist. Who then, can receive?

- Only Catholics can receive Communion. Scripture clearly states that partaking of the Eucharist is the highest sign of Christian unity, "Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread" (1 Cor. 10:17). For this reason, it is normally impossible for non-Catholic Christians to receive Holy Communion, because to do so would create the false illusion that we are one. Unfortunately, the fact remains that Catholics and Protestants are not one Church.

Another reason why non-Catholics shouldn't receive Communion is for their own protection, since many reject the doctrine of the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Scripture warns that it is very dangerous for one not believing in the Real Presence to receive Communion. "For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body, eats and drinks judgment upon himself." (1 Cor. 11:29)

- Catholics who are in the state of grace. "Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner, will be guilty of profaning the Body and Blood of the Lord. Let a man examine himself, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup" (1 Cor. 11:27-28). This is an absolute requirement that can never be dispensed. To receive the Eucharist, without sanctifying grace in our souls, profanes the Eucharist in the most grievous manner.

The same ancient teaching is found in an early Christian document called the "Didache." It was written around 70 A.D. and it says: "Whoever is holy, let him approach. Whoever is not, let him repent."

- Catholics who have been to confession since their last mortal sin.
The Didache witnesses to this practice of the early Church. "But first make Confession of your faults, so that your sacrifice may be a pure one." And it also states in the Code of Canon Law. "A person who is conscious of a grave sin not to receive the Body of the Lord without prior sacramental Confession."
- Catholics who truly believe in the Doctrine of Transubstantiation.
"For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body, eats and drinks judgment upon himself." (1 Cor. 11:29)
- Catholics who abstain from food and drink for 1 hour prior to Mass, with the exception of water and medicine. Also, the elderly and ill are excused from this fast. See (CIC919 1).

St. Peter's Continues to look for a Music Director

Our music director Harrison will be leaving St. Peter's because he wishes to pursue other opportunities in education. We wish Harrison the very best in his search, but now we also need to search for someone who will lead us in song! If you know a talented musician who is available and interested in a great part-time position as our Director of Music, please leave their contact information with either Mary Kay or Father Joe at the parish office. We need all parishioners to help get the word out! And if everyone says a prayer to St. Cecilia, patron saint of musicians and church choirs, that would be a great help, too!

DEALING WITH LOSS AND THOSE LEFT BEHIND

Christians know that death leads to marvelous new life, but it is still difficult to lose someone we love. We take comfort knowing that we remain connected in the Communion of Saints, the spiritual solidarity binding the faithful on Earth, the souls in Purgatory, and the saints in Heaven. Still, finding or offering comfort after death can be challenging:

Pray. Pray that the souls who have died may find their place in Heaven. Perhaps arrange to have that prayer included in the intentions during Mass in your parish. Including them in your daily prayers also helps to keep their intentions alive.

Be present. Attend the visitation or funeral. Such customs are part of honoring and praying for the deceased person and showing compassion to the living.

Offer material support. Bring a meal to the family. Mass cards, notes and phone calls can also comfort.

Contribute. Consider making a donation of time or money to organizations such as a local Hospice that provide grace and dignity to those dying.

HAND CARVED IN BETHLEHEM
IN SUPPORT OF CHRISTIANS IN THE HOLY LAND
AFTER ALL MASSES NOVEMBER 25 & 26.
VISIT THE TABLES OF RELIGIOUS WARES IN THE PARISH HALL (Nativity sets, statues, rosaries, crucifixes, icons, etc.)

Blest Art represents Christian families from Bethlehem and the surrounding region. These families have been dependent upon sales of their hand carved religious articles to tourists of the Holy Land. Due to the conflict in the Middle East and the Pandemic, tourism was stopped completely from March 2, 2020, until February 2022, and now because of what is going on in the Holy Land, tourism has again stopped completely.

It is very important to support them at this critical time, since they have no income and there is no government to take care of them and help them. In order to survive, they have turned to Christian communities in the United States to purchase their articles. These hand carved religious articles are beyond description. Carved from wood of the sacred Olive Tree, the workmanship has been traditional for these families for hundreds of years. It is hoped that through the efforts of Blest Art, these families who have little income, will be able to stay living and survive in the Holy Land. Sadly enough, the Christian population dropped from 22% to less than 1% in the last 20 years.

Thank you in advance for your support.

Jesus walks into a bar and says to the bartender, "Just 12 waters, please," as He winks at the disciples.

Jesus walks into a restaurant and tells the hostess that He would like a table for 26. "But there are only 13 of you," she says. "Yes," the Lord responded, "but we're all going to sit on the same side."
