Request your 2024 Mass Intentions Now!

A Mass Intention is the offering of a Mass in honor of, or in memory of, someone special to you. While most Mass Intentions are said for the repose of the soul of someone who has died, they can also be said for the intention of a person's birthday, anniversary, or time of illness. We recommend that you put in your requests early, especially if you are looking to have a Mass on a special day.

To request a Mass Intention contact the Parish Office at 815-675-2288 or saintpeterschurch@gmail.com.

JEWEL CHRISTMAS FOOD DRIVE

Friends, Jewel Foods is continuing their food drive until Christmas. The need is so great in our community. Helping Hands Food Pantry served 120 families at Thanksgiving. We are expecting the same number if not more this Christmas. Please, please, when you come to Jewel to shop, add a few dollars towards the food drive.

We can't say Thank you often enough for your generosity!

God Bless you all, Merry Christmas and a joyous Holiday Season to everyone.

GERMANY

Starting in the 16th Century, Germans hide a pickle somewhere within the branches of their Christmas tree. Whatever child finds it receives a gift!

Mary's "Yes"

When the angel appeared to Mary and told her what God was asking of her, she didn't have to agree. God gave all of us free will to allow us to make our own choices. Mary said "yes" to God out of love. Her reward (and ours, too) is eternity with her Son.

Thank you to all who donated for the P.A.D.S. collection – we were able to donate $435 in cash plus 2 car loads of items. They were so gracious and it was a wonderful feeling to be able to give to those less fortunate. Thank You All, again!

St. Peter's Women's Ministry had their Christmas Party on December 5th, and Fr. Joe pulled the winners of the 50/50 raffle and they are:

1st Place – Laura Link

2nd Place – George Gemberling

3rd Place – Stanley Urbaniak

Thank you to all who submitted their contributions and we're so excited to help many more people and our parish community in the future.

in the Sacristy for only $3

GAUDETE SUNDAY

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

The word "Gaudete" is Latin for "Rejoice." In times when the focus of our anticipation is often on the negative and fearful, this celebration is a reminder that God who loves us is still in charge and that we await His coming not with fear, but with tremendous Joy.

Gospel Meditation

Why do we believe in Jesus and the Catholic Church? Why should we continue to do so? We've never seen Him face-to-face (at least not most of us, I assume). Most of us have never had mystical visions of angels or saints. We live in the same world as our atheist and secularists friends. Why do we believe in Christ if we've never seen Him?

The simple, symbolic answer the Gospel presents to us this week might surprise us: we believe because of John the Baptist. Early in John's Gospel we hear: "There was a man sent from God his name was John. He came for testimony, to bear witness to the light, that all might believe through him." The Baptist powerfully announces Jesus. This is a historical fact, and it is also now a pattern at work in our lives.

John the Baptist stands for the entirety of the old covenant, everything entrusted to the Jewish people. And yet he prophetically opens the door to something entirely new in Jesus, to the revival and fulfillment of God's promises. In every generation, and in every human life, God continues to do this. He has done it through people named Augustine, Francis, Catherine, Theresa, and countless others. In my life, the Baptist's spirit has come through persons named Eric, Paul, Mary, and Ron. I challenge you to name at least three people through whom God has announced the coming of Jesus in your life.

Consciously thank God for their testimony. And let's commit ourselves to listening to the spirit of John the Baptist testify again this week so that we might more strongly believe in the light.

“Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing.” Such simple words from today’s second reading. And yet it is not always easy to put them into practice. It is difficult to rejoice if we or people we love are hurting. It can be hard to pray when life is pulling us in a thousand different directions. But on this Gaudete Sunday, the Sunday of rejoicing, we are asked to focus on a truth that can make both rejoicing and praying easier: Jesus entered humanity in flesh and blood to save us from our sins. This truth means that even if we don’t feel like there is much gladness or joy in our lives today, we can rejoice in the knowledge that we all have the chance to spend eternity in a place where pain, disappointment and suffering will be no more. With our eyes focused on that prize, praying can become a natural part of our days.

Have a Peaceful, Merry Christmas

Do you aim for an idyllic Christmas celebration complete with a warm fire, joyful music, and tinsel-covered tree? For many of us, Christmas comes at the end of weeks spent shopping, wrapping, and spending, and is wrought with family tensions, obligations, and exhaustion.

Try these steps to keep your sanity and Your Savior in your Christmas celebration:

Be realistic. It isn't the goal of the season to make everyone happy. If you don't overspend and over extend before Christmas, you'll be in a better frame of mind when it arrives.

Soothe the beast: Beautiful music can set a soothing tone for your celebration. Pick your favorite holy hymns to put yourself in the Christmas frame of mind.

Reach out. Want to make your own problems seem small? Take on someone else's. Do at least one good Christmas deed for someone needy.

Seek the eternal. Jesus gives us peace, purpose, and perspective. Spend time with Jesus each day of Advent and Christmas to remind yourself of what is most important about Christmas.
