St. Peter's Church
OF SPRING GROVE, IL

Jesus, Restore Us

Sunday, January 28th
Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Live the Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

With one swift command, Jesus freed a man from the possession of evil spirits. He has that same power to banish the shadow of sin from our own lives. Let's invite Him into our hearts, asking Him to cleanse the darkness He finds there.

In preparation for Ash Wednesday, February 14th, we will be burning last year's palm branches to make the ash that will mark our foreheads. For parishioners who want to properly dispose of their dried, blessed branches, we have placed well-marked containers near the Church entrances. Fr. Joe will burn them on Sunday afternoon, February 11th. Should you forget, you can burn them just as well as he can in your own fireplace, fire pit, charcoal grill or pellet smoker. If you still try to drop them off after February 11th, just don't let the pastor see you!

"You cannot let the bad example of others influence you. God will judge them and their actions. God will judge you for yours. You need to focus on being good Catholics. And so Christ, in today's parable (The Sower and the Seed), is very open and honest with us. In His Church, there will be two types of people. There will be those who are the children of God and those that are the children of the devil. The children of the devil will try to look like the children of God, and so we better make sure that we aren't faking it. Because we might be able to fool those around us, but we can't fool God."

We often hear about Jesus' Passion and Death, but imagine experiencing them for the very first time. In No Greater Love, we are going to walk step-by-step with our Lord on His journey from the Garden of Gethsemane to His Crucifixion on Calvary. Along the way, we will unpack the biblical background to these events, the prophecies, and most especially, the way Jesus is inviting us to walk more closely with Him today.

No Greater Love is a five-part Bible study program that begins on Tuesday, February 27th at 9:00 am in the Parish Hall. For registered parishioners, the cost of your workbook is only $14 because St. Peter's is paying for half! If you want to experience the unconditional love that Christ has for you, register today by calling Marcey at 815-675-2288.

St. Peter Church Needs Ushers!

What is the mission of Ushers?

The mission of our ushers, is that of hospitality. Here, at St. Peter, ushers need to make parishioners and guests feel welcome and comfortable as we gather for our Eucharistic celebration. The key of good ushering is seeing the presence of Christ in each person as they arrive for Mass,

The Oldest Lay Ministry

Did you know that ushering is the oldest lay ministry in the Catholic Church? It's true! During the time of Christ, the doorkeepers of the temple numbered in the hundreds and were the forerunners of today's ushers.

The more immediate predecessor of today's usher can be found in the clerical Order of Porter, instituted in the 3rd Century A.D. During those times it was the duty of porters or ushers to guard the door of the church against any intruders who might disturb the service. The porters' duties were so important that they came to be included in the rite of ordination, where they were specified as: "to ring the bells, open the church and sacristy, to open the book for the preacher." However, in 1972, Pope Paul VI abolished the order of porter and this important task was given over to the laity.

Ushers Responsibilities

Ushers serve on Saturdays, Sundays, and individually, when available, for holy days and special services. Ushers should provide the following for our parish:

- Ensure the cleanliness and safety of the sanctuary before and after Mass.
- Welcome church attendees as they arrive, especially people who appear to be first time visitors.
- Assist in the seating of guests and parishioners, and discreetly guiding latecomers to seats at appropriate points in the Mass..
- Collect the offering and place the collection in front of the altar. After Mass, the collection must be secured.
- Organize the flow of the community as they come forward for Communion or events such as the veneration of the Cross during Lent.
- Stay vigilant and keep an eye on the congregation to see if any members might need assistance. Any medical emergencies or service disruptions need to be handled with courage and composure.
- Hand out the weekly bulletin.

To become a much-needed usher, please call Fr. Joe at 815-675-2288 x 201

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I love movies about exorcisms. Apparently, so do many others. The 2023 movie “Nefarious” features a possibly possessed inmate on death row. Critics were not impressed, but audiences scored it at 97% on the website Rotten Tomatoes. Most people have an appreciation for the demonic realm, even if cultural elites are generally embarrassed about it. As is standard in exorcism movies, the afflicted person (in this case, a man named Edward Brady) thinks and acts like multiple persons. He is someone besides himself. We know what that is like. We feel fake sometimes, not ourselves.

The same dynamic is on dramatic display this week in the Gospel. Jesus the Exorcist approaches a possessed man who utters, “What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth?” Notice the plural, us. The basic effect of the demonic is division. The man’s identity is fractured, divided and thus many. Jesus powerfully expels the spirit by saying, “Quiet Come out of him!” Jesus’ word has the power to restore the man’s singularity – him – and indeed it does.

All this helps us to dismiss childish images of demons sporting red goat tails. Equally, it overcomes the cultured aloofness that dreams demons are mere metaphors for evil. We see instead that fallen angels are conscious and intelligent beings who orient their agency toward division. They bring about schism where there should be unity, e.g., in persons, families, communities, politics, and so on. Thankfully, Jesus commands demons to flee from all these places to restore wholeness and peace. What if we made room for His word where we need it?

A guy is driving around in a parking lot looking for a place to park so he can be on time for a job interview. He drove up and down all the aisles, but couldn’t find an empty spot anywhere. So, he stopped, closed his eyes and said this heartfelt prayer, “Dear God, please help me find a parking space. I really need this job. If you help me find a parking space, I promise to make it to Mass every Sunday and I’ll even stop drinking that Irish whiskey that I love so much.”

Behold, he opens his eyes and there is a parking place right in front of him!

He says, “Never mind, God, I just found one.”
