Live Your Life in Christ

When God wanted to create fish, He spoke to the sea. When God created trees, He spoke to the earth. When He desired to create us, He spoke to Himself.

We all know what happens when you take a fish out of the sea. It dies, correct? What happens to a tree when you uproot it from the soil? It dies. And what happens when we become disconnected from God? We also die. Let's never forget that we were created to live in the presence of God. It is only in Him that life exists!

Guess who is coming for dinner? Beginning next week, Msgr. Joe will be calling those parishioners who have not yet given to this year's Diocesan Appeal. He wants to find a time when he can come to your home for dinner and discuss the importance of this appeal and the many ministries it supports and people it helps. Otherwise, if you send in your donation as soon as possible, he will gladly send you a sincere letter of gratitude instead!

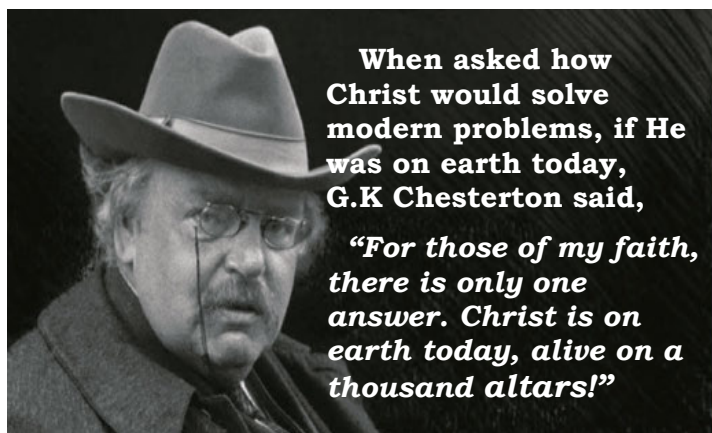

ADORATION UPDATE: No one has yet called and volunteered to be an adorer of our Eucharistic Lord on Sunday mornings, from 7:00 – 7:45 a.m. If you plan on coming to the 8 o'clock Sunday Mass, beginning June 2nd, will you consider arriving 60 minutes early to spend quiet, quality time with Jesus? If you are willing to help, call Fr. Joe at the parish office or Carrie Shannon at 815.687.6734.

St. Peter's 2024 Rummage Sale

We are in the early planning stages of this year's rummage sale. The dates are June 20th through June 29th. Please watch the bulletin for more information.

Congratulations to the New Officers of SPWM

New officers of the St. Peter's Women's Ministry were officially installed on Thursday, May 8th. After the short ceremony, a celebratory dinner was held at Sunset Grill in Antioch! New officers are (left to right): Co-Presidents are Nettie Toms & Laura Hamill, Vice President is Ashley Gordon, Patti Mueller is the Secretary and the new Treasurer is Crystal Pace. Best wishes to the new officers and our gratitude to the Women's Ministry!

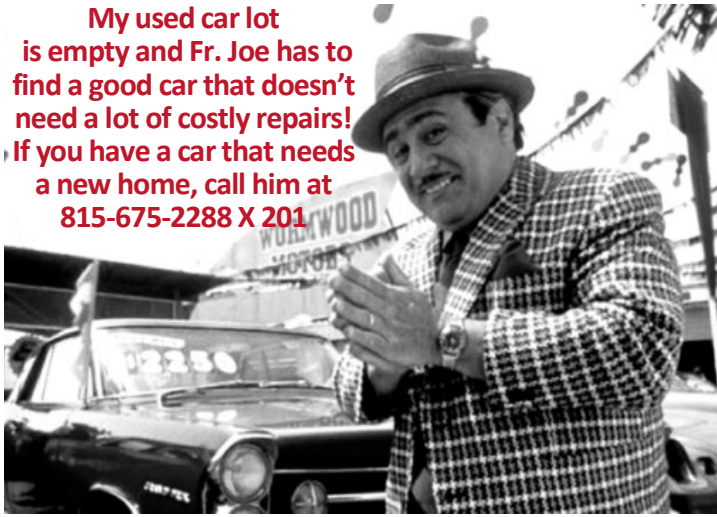

Catholic Churches are being vandalized with a chilling regularity. In her book, "The Anti-Mary Exposed," Dr. Carrie Gress provides this startling quote, "Our world has become an orphanage, which is what happens when we get rid of the Cross and the woman who stood next to it."

God bless the following people who support St. Peter's and this year's Diocesan Appeal!

FOR THE WEEKENDS
5/18 - 5/26/2024

A man said to his wife one day, "I don't know how you can be so dumb and so beautiful all at the same time." His wife replied, "Allow me to explain. God made me beautiful so you would be attracted to me. And God made me dumb so I would be attracted to you."

ALL are welcome!

Love them All

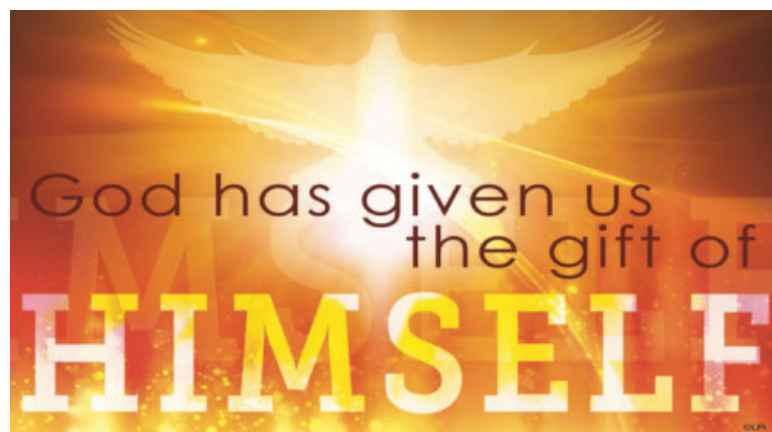

Deacon Mark and his wife, Diane, were sitting in church together. Even before the music started, he leaned over and whispered, "Oops... I just quietly passed some gas." She looked at him and said, "You need hearing aids."

Live the Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Like a stool that cannot stand on two legs alone, we need the Holy Spirit. The third Person of the Trinity is the puzzle piece whose testimony completes the beautiful picture of salvation. Let us never fail to say: Come, Holy Spirit!

Cover Painting ~ Pentecost - 1615-1620, Spanish School Fray Juan Bautista Maino

Juan Bautista Maino, had painted "Pentecost," for the high Altar of the Convent of the Barefoot Carmelites the Church of San Pedro Mártir in Toledo. Notice that Mary occupies the center of the composition with the Apostles on either side of her, six standing just behind her and six kneeling alongside or slightly in front of her. Mary is portrayed wearing a red tunic with her head covered by a veil and her cloak, as she is also seen in Maino's other compositions.

Also kneeling and closer to the viewer is Mary Magdalene, depicted here as a beautiful young woman dressed in a white tunic and gold-colored cloak. Magdalen is rendered as overtly sensual in type, due in part to her delicate garments and also to her radiant face, which is tilted upwards in a way that conveys profound emotion, a sentiment that is emphasized by the gesture of acceptance and acknowledgement of her hands.

The upper part of the canvas includes a large white dove seen frontally with its wings outstretched. It creates around itself a luminous burst of light that breaks up the intense darkness among which the heads of five cherubim are visible. The Dove of the Holy Spirit is the origin of the small tongues of fire that can be seen hovering over the heads of the figures depicted. All of them observe the miracle in a restraint manner.

Saint Peter is observed to the side of Mary, holding a text in his left hand while his right hand is extended above the Virgin's head, pointing at the presence of the Holy Spirit in a gesture that also visually helps to draw attention to the center of the composition. Maino used considerable variety in his depictions of the other Apostles, although they all conform to a humble social type.
