Capital Improvements Update

The new columbarium for our cemetery was purchased from American Wibert Granite and is scheduled to be installed on July 9th. Once that job is finished, David Weidner Concrete, Inc. will be pouring a new sidewalk, leading to and surrounding the new columbarium. When completed, the columbarium and sidewalk will look identical to the one that has served us so well since 2000.

Plans for the painting of the interior of our church is moving forward! A contract from the designer and painter was completed and already sent to the Chancery Office for their review and approval. Once it is signed, the project will begin within 30 days. Our community will experience as little disruption as possible. Of course, scaffolding is necessary and will require the removal of just 3-4 pews at a time. Some people will be inconvenienced by this. However, the Mass schedule will not be interrupted and we will be able to see the progress being made from one weekend to the next! Father Joe will tell us the start date as soon as he hears back from the chancery.

The Cemetery Crucifix will be reinstalled soon! It is Tyler Sepsey's Eagle Scout project and he has been working on it for nearly two years now. We will be using the same crucifix, but it will be erected on a polished, black granite pedestal that will include statues of St. John and Mary at the foot of the cross. It will be located in the same position as before and it will be lit at night.

Information will soon follow regarding a Bury Box. What is a Bury Box? A bury box is a container that will be temporarily placed in the front of the church and parishioners will have the opportunity to deposit their unused blessed articles such as medals, broken rosaries or damaged statues. Those articles will then be mixed in the concrete to be poured as the foundation of our new crucifix. Stay tuned for more information!

This year, St. Peter's Diocesan Stewardship target is 3.8% higher than it was last year. Unfortunately, fewer parishioners are helping us meet our goal with 74.56% not responding. If you are unable to help financially, the envelope we sent offers the option of praying for the success of this important appeal. Can we count on you to pray for us? Please send us your envelope, even if you cannot contribute at this time. We would love to hear from every parish family.

Thank you for always letting us know if your contact information changes. Whether you have a new phone number or a change of address, we appreciate you telling us. You can either call the parish office during regular business hours or update your information by visiting the parish website and clicking CONTACT US on the home page. We made it easy for you!

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Right now, you and I are only worried about one of two things: wind or water. Bear with me. This week we hear the account of the terrified disciples waking Jesus in a sea-storm. He chastises them for their lack of faith, and then, “rebuking the wind,, He said to the sea, ‘Quiet, be still!’” He rebukes the wind and stills the water. In the Bible wind and water represent the two most fundamental poles of our experience of creation. Wind means heaven, spirit, that which gives identity, unity, order, light. Water stands for earth, variation, potential, that which can be drawn into identity, darkness, chaos.

Too much “wind” is when things get way to rigid, abstract and ideological – when we face oppressive leaders and tyrants, when we get addicted to our own way of doing things, when our attention is too narrowly focused on one thing. Too much “water” is excessive novelty, passivity, indifference, and chaos – when our attention is too broadly diffused on many things, when things seem to be crumbling without direction into the dark abyss. We know both terrifying experiences all too well.

The point of the miracle is that God in Christ is the One who brings final cosmic harmony between these two vital but threatening forces. He ultimately does so from the wood of the Cross, when He breathes forth the wind of His spirit and pours forth the water from His side to establish a new creation, filled with harmonious peace. When the wind and water are out of control, trust Him.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

The Perfect Storm

I am writing this on a Saturday morning. Saturdays are my writing days, when my husband takes over the kids and the house and I disappear into the office with an enormous cup of coffee and noise-canceling headphones. Saturdays are sacred — if work can be called sacred.

But Saturday morning is also the only time I'm able to consistently get to confession. Every other time the sacrament is offered in my area during the week, I seem to have unavoidable commitments — but on Saturday morning, all I have is work, and how can I let work come before a sacrament, as much as I might secretly want to?

I've spent a good deal of time being bitter about this, because it's just not convenient, having to carve out time from work to run to the other side of town, especially when I get there and there's a line. I sit there in the sanctuary, waiting my turn, checking the clock, stewing, fretting. Obsessing over forgetting one of my sins. Thinking of how much work I have when I get home.

Saturday mornings: a perfect storm, I sometimes call it in my head.

I forge ahead, though. I've never gotten up and dashed back to my desk. I make it into the confessional and I stammer out my pathetic little list and receive absolution. Then I go before the tabernacle to perform my penance.

It's while I am kneeling there that it happens. Always. God awakens, and he cries into the depths of my heart: "Quiet! Be still! Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?"

After teaching all day by the shore of the sea, Jesus asks his disciples to remove him from the crowds. He wants to escape the noise, the clamor, the disquiet. But the clamor follows him, because the world is full of it. Storms crop up wherever we go.

Jesus sleeps through the storm, because he understands what the disciples do not: the storms of the world cannot hurt us. They are only so much noise.

"Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?" — Mark 4:41

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman
