Do You Use Holy Water?

It's unfortunate that many Catholics use Holy Water only for dipping their fingers into when they come into church, without realizing it's true power. Holy Water is a sacramental, meaning it is a powerful instrument of God's grace! When Msgr. Joe blesses the Holy Water used at St. Peter's, he prays an ancient blessing asking for protection, purification and spiritual strength wherever it is sprinkled. In fact, St. Theresa of Avila said, "Nothing drives away the devil more effectively than Holy Water." Here are suggested ways to use it in your homes.

- Bless yourself every morning and night.
- Sprinkle it around your home for protection.
- Bless your children before they sleep.
- Use it during spiritual attacks; it is a weapon against evil.

So, next time you come to Mass, bring a plastic Holy water bottle or a clean mason jar and fill them to the rim! The Blessed water can be found in the large metal urn, just to the right of the statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

St. Peter's Church will be taking a Bus tour To celebrate the 2025 Jubilee! Come along and be a Pilgrim of Hope!

The Dangers of Assisted Suicide in Illinois

The 104th IL General Assembly is considering legalizing physician assisted suicide in the state through Senate Bill 9 and House Bill 1328. Our Catholic faith and common sense dictate that we must oppose this legislation.

- Assisted suicide is the act of intentionally helping a person end his or her life, usually with a doctor prescribing the drugs to do so.
- It is immoral to hasten or facilitate ending any human life.
- A better way forward is to expand the number and availability of palliative care programs in Illinois.
- The American Medical Association, the American Psychiatric Association, and dozens of medical groups oppose assisted suicide.
- Physician assisted suicide is suicide.

HOW TO HELP:

Visit www.rockforddiocese.org/life/opposing-assisted-suicide to learn how to actively oppose this legislation.

As believers, how can we fail to feel the duty to surround the sick and those in distress with the warmth of our affection and the support that will help them always to embrace life?

(Practicing) Catholic The Apology

Mini Reflection: God doesn't need our repentance. We need our repentance.

The Apology

I like to imagine the Prodigal Son practicing his apology in the mirror.

He wouldn't have, of course. Mirrors weren't exactly a dime a dozen back then. But I imagine him anyway, rehearsing the words as he contemplates his own gaunt reflection: "Father, I have sinned against God and against you. Treat me as you would treat one of your hired workers."

In other words, I have done wrong. I deserve nothing from you. But please, don't let me starve. Save me.

The apology wasn't necessary to move the heart of the father. We know that because before they meet, before anything is said, the father is overcome with compassion—not because he got his satisfaction, that long-awaited "I'm sorry, I was wrong." No, he's simply overjoyed to see his son alive. Even without apology, we know the father will beg his son to stay.

So why does the son apologize?

The father doesn't need the "I'm sorry." He isn't starving and lost. He knew all along it was a bad idea. He doesn't need to learn any lessons.

But what a tragedy it would have been, if the son had never said he was sorry. Undoubtedly, his father would have let him stay as a hired worker, and he would have had food to eat. He would have survived. But he wouldn't have been what he was born to be.

I often think of the son's apology as I am kneeling in the confessional, awkwardly reciting sins God already knows and is eager to forgive. Why are you doing this? some people would ask. God doesn't need this.

It's the apology, you see. The apology means everything. The Prodigal Son was dead. The apology brought him back to life.

God doesn't need our repentance. We need our repentance.

Putin dies and goes to hell, but after awhile, the devil allowed him one day back on earth. So, he stops at a bar in Moscow and asked the bartender, "Is Crimea ours?" "Yes," the man responded. "Is Donbas?" asked Putin. "That's also ours," said the bartender. "How about Kiev?" "Ours!" Putin was so happy and before going back to hell, he asked, "How much do I owe you?" "5 euros," said the bartender.
