Are You Interested in Becoming Catholic?

When Jesus turned and saw them following, He said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to Him, "Rabbi, where are You staying?" He said to them, "Come and see."

Perhaps this is the time for you to "come and see" what Jesus has to offer in the Catholic faith.

OCIA was designed to prepare adults to come into full initiation of the Catholic Church and be an integral part of the wonderful community of St. Peter's and the universal Catholic Church.

The OCIA Journey is for those:

- Never Baptized
- Baptized in another Christian tradition
- Baptized Catholic, but not raised in the faith or received additional sacraments

We invite you to come and ask your questions about the Catholic faith and OCIA; to explore the beauty of Sacred Scripture and Catholic tradition, and to develop a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. We invite you to inquire with no obligation.

To our parish family: Encourage and invite family members, friends, co-workers and others, to "come and see," and ask their questions about the Catholic Faith.

For more information, call Paul or Karyn Leali at 847-337-5043.

Classes start Sunday, September 21st immediately after the 8:00 a.m. Mass in the Parish Office.

SEX ED

The Diocese of Rockford cautions parents to consider what our Illinois public schools teach our children about sex education. In 2021, Illinois public schools adopted the National Sexual Education Standards for schools that teach sex ed. These standards require children from kindergarten through 12th grade to receive instruction about gender identity, expression, and orientation. The standards can cause irreparable harm to children, are contrary to Church teaching on God's gift of sexuality, undermine parents' rights, and indoctrinate children to a particular social agenda.

Learn more and find opt-out sample letters at www.rockforddiocese.org/life/current-life-issues/parental-rights.

Opt-out letters must be resubmitted each year!

For age appropriate, parent-led Catholic sex ed materials, check out Love Ed at loveed.com.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC What Did You Expect?

Mini reflection: I think, if we're being really honest, we all expect "payment" for being a good person. We want God to give us what we ask. We want people to treat us a certain way. But what if we expected absolutely nothing?

What Did You Expect?

Moms have a lot of jobs, and it's usually the case that none of them pay very well.

My work as a chef? Zero compensation, and my clientele are very rarely pleased with my efforts.

My role as a teacher, a maid, a chauffeur, a therapist—same deal. Ironically, these jobs consume so much of my time that I am constricted in my work as a writer—the only sphere where I do actually garner any earnings.

It is so easy to grumble about all of this, and I do it all the time. Because despite the fact that I know better, I expect repayment for my good deeds. Deep in my soul, I expect it.

That's a huge problem.

In my defense, I don't think this is a very uncommon thing. I think, if we're being really honest, we all expect "payment" for being a good person. We want God to give us what we ask. We want people to treat us a certain way. We want our day to go smoothly. We expect these things as a matter of course; we feel entitled to them, and we become grumpy when we are denied them. I worked so hard. I gave so much. What was it all even for?

But what if we expected absolutely nothing?

When you hold a banquet, Jesus said, invite those who cannot return the favor. Give not just without the expectation of repayment, but without the possibility of it.

Think about that for a minute. What does that even look like—no possibility of payment?

I know what that looks like in my own life. It's giving more to the literal poor, yes, but it's also giving more—and more happily, more lovingly—when I cook and clean and drive and write and console. It's not lamenting that no one appreciates me—it's actually hoping no one does.

It's learning to love the lowest place at the table. Because in the lowest place, we are closest to God.

~ Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman
