Serving those who Serve

This week our parish will take a collection to benefit the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS). The AMS is the Archdiocese for the Military Services, not of the Military Services. This is an important distinction, because the AMS receives no funding from the U.S. Government or U.S. Military and has no parishes from which to receive a weekly assessment. Instead, it must rely on the generosity of those whose values and priorities align with its mission, programs and services, to meet its costs. Please prayerfully consider a contribution to this special collection to support active-duty military men and women, and their families—including those from our own parish. Please give generously. To learn more about the AMS, go to www.milarch.org/nationalcollection

SPIRITUAL MERCY

Our faith offers us seven Corporal Works of Mercy and seven Spiritual Works of Mercy as guides on how to live faith more fully. One of the Spiritual Works is to pray for the living and the dead. This is intercession, praying for others and not ourselves. November is the month in which Catholics will especially intercede for the faithful departed, even going to pray for the dead at cemeteries. The Church teaches that we pray, give alms, and do works of penance for the purification of the souls of the dead, so that they may pass through Purgatory and enter Heaven (CCC 1032). This month especially, let's take up the Spiritual Work of Mercy of praying for our deceased loved ones.

Thank You from Prayers & Squares

The Prayers & Squares Ministry would like to extend our deepest gratitude to all parish members who visited the parish hall during the weekend of October 18-19. Thanks to your generous spirit, over 100 handmade shawls and afghans—each graciously blessed by Fr. Burt—were taken to provide comfort and warmth to those facing illness, grief or personal hardship.

Each item was lovingly crafted by our group members over the past year as a symbol of care and compassion—a tangible reminder that no one walks alone. Whether you selected a piece for yourself or to share with someone in need, your participation helps us fulfill our mission of offering a “warm embrace” through prayer and service.

We couldn't do this without you!

If you feel called to join us, Prayers & Squares meets the second Thursday of each month. Our next gathering is Thursday, November 13th.

All are welcome!

A BIG THANK YOU to everyone for making the AFFY TAPPLE sale a HUGE SUCCESS!

Not only did the profit cover our new rosary books, we have a bit of money to set aside for our next Faith Formation Family Night.

Special thanks to the Rog family for picking up the apples at the factory in Niles, IL.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

The Semicolon

Mini reflection: I imagine the hand of God writing me into existence—she lived, she died—using for ink the very dirt that fills my grave. The dust from which I was created.

My grave is in the corner of a cemetery in rural southeastern Wisconsin. For at least a mile in every direction, all you can see is farmland—cows, barns and quiet country roads. It's beautiful, serene. I imagine the hand of God writing me into existence—she lived, she died—using for ink the very dirt that fills this grave. The dust from which I was created.

Surrounding my grave are the burial plots of other family members—Rachel, Georgiana, Julian, Josephine. I visit the cemetery to pray for them, knowing they are there, but also not there. And when I visit their graves, I stand on my own. I look out at the tree-lined horizon and the farmland. I think of how, in a thousand years, none of this will be here. But I will be here, God's hand paused against the page, preparing to write the rest of the story not in dirt but in his own blood. For Christ does not lose anything of what the Father has given him.

Not a soul. Not a bone. Not a lock of hair.

She lived, she died; she lived again. No longer is there a period after the words she died but instead a semicolon. And the semicolon is the grave, that mystical place where the Blood mixes with the dust of the earth, where life meets death, and then meets life again. And the story continues.

~ Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman
