EPIPHANY

Each year, we celebrate the Epiphany of the Lord in early January. The feast of the Epiphany commemorates the Magi seeking and finding the Christ Child and bestowing on Him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. In some countries and cultures, children receive gifts on this day instead of Christmas. This year, we celebrate the Epiphany on January 4, though the traditional date is January 6. Like the Wise Men who traveled from distant lands to see Christ the King, we have gifts that we can put at the disposal of God and His Kingdom. What are some gifts God might be calling us to use for His purpose?

The Three Wise Men

Question:

Magi, Three Kings, Three Wise Men... who were they?

Answer:

We sing songs, give gifts, and move three mysterious men into our manger scenes. There's a rich heritage in the Catholic Church of celebrating the magi, but their origins are steeped in mystery. The original Greek calls these men magoi. The word is translated elsewhere in Scripture to mean "magician," but a similar word was used in ancient history to describe an entirely different set of people altogether. In what is now modern-day Iran, the ruling empire had a wealthy priestly caste known as the Magi. At the time of Christ, the Magi formed one of the ruling councils of the Parthian Empire. These priests interpreted dreams and read the stars to anticipate major events that could affect the fortunes of the empire.

We're not exactly sure where the magi of the Gospels traveled from. Matthew simply says "the east." History tells us that the ancient regions of Persia, Assyria, and Babylon all had a magi priesthood at the time of Christ. Whichever region they hailed from, they likely traveled over one thousand miles over the course of several months to arrive at the Holy Family. Unfortunately for the classic song, there is no concrete evidence these men were themselves kings, though they did bear gifts "from afar" at the prompting of their astronomical calculations.

Live the Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

The journey of the Magi reflects how treacherous our Christian life on earth can be. Always, evil works against us—Satan lays traps. He sows confusion. May we, like the Magi, recognize the will of God as our guiding star.

Devotions, Explained! Epiphany Blessing, Explained

The Epiphany household blessing is a centuries-old tradition that invokes God's blessing on all who enter one's home.

All you need for an Epiphany blessing is chalk, which is usually made available by parishes either on the feast of the Epiphany or in the weeks leading up to it. There are a few different formulas for blessings out there, but the essence of the ritual is always the same: a priest or the head of the household calls down God's blessing on the house and everyone who comes into it, and an inscription is made above the door in chalk.

The inscription reads: the first two digits of the year + C + M + B + the last two digits of the year. The initials C, M and B represent the names of the magi—Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar—and also signify the Latin phrase Christus mansionem benedicat: “May Christ bless the house.”

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

God chose Bethlehem—a seemingly insignificant town—to be the birthplace of His Son. Like Bethlehem, we too, have been chosen by God. As we continue our celebration of Christmas, our hearts are filled to overflowing when we recall that by taking on our flesh, God has chosen to make His home with us for all eternity.

Paul reminds us that God has chosen us, not only for ourselves, but for the sake of others: “You have heard of the stewardship of God’s grace that was given to me for your benefit.” God gives Paul a special revelation to know the mystery of God so he could preach the Gospel to the Gentiles and to all peoples. We who know the joy of having been chosen to be God’s beloved sons and daughters have the beautiful task of helping others to know that they, too, are chosen by God. Because of this, evangelization is not simply an item on our spiritual to-do list; it is a work of joy—the joy of helping others to discover their own “belovedness” as children of God. And of course, this message is for everyone!

INVITATION

One of the best presents we can offer to someone is our presence. Make an effort this week to intentionally spend time with someone who may feel lonely or forgotten, setting aside other tasks to focus entirely on them. The goal is to help them feel special and chosen as a way of giving a glimpse of God’s love that chooses each of us out of the many. May the gift of your presence help them to remember how very loved they are.

“Do something beautiful for God. Do it with your life. Do it every day. Do it in your own way. But do it.”

~ St. Mother Teresa ~

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC THE STARS WE FOLLOW

Mini reflection: Of all the stars you could follow, which one does the voice—that one deep within you—tell you to chase? Point to it. And go forth.

Everyone follows a star.

It is human nature to seek. If we are rich, we want to be richer. If we are smart, we want to be smarter. If we are powerful, we want to be more powerful.

We cannot stay in one place, so to speak—to say, “I am what I am, I have what I have, and it is enough.” Even the very act of maintaining a status quo, be it health or wealth or spiritual goodness, requires action. It requires effort. It requires movement. This is human nature. There is nothing wrong with it. When we stop seeking, we die.

But what are we looking for? Where are we going? I often wonder if the Magi knew what they were seeking—really, truly knew. They were seeking “the newborn king of the Jews,” yes, but did they understand who he was? What he was? I don’t see how they could have. They were wise men, but they were not prophets. They simply knew this was an endeavor they had to undertake. They knew it in their souls.

There really is very little that we know for certain about the Magi. We don’t know how many of them there were. We don’t know their religion. We don’t know where they came from. All we know for certain is that they listened to a voice they heard deep within themselves. And, heeding that voice, they went forth.

And what did they find? They found what we all seek, even if, foolishly, we seek it in riches or power.

They found the face of the Child.

So tell me this. Of all the stars you could follow, which one does the voice—that one deep within you—tell you to chase?

Point to it. And go forth.

When we are separated from God, we lose sight of what is good and important to us. When we disobey God and begin to serve ourselves, we become spiritually blind. Left to our own devices, humans are spiritually blinded and without hope. But Jesus, the Light of the World, can open our eyes to see.
Through Christ we receive spiritual sight!
