The Virtue of Patience, Explained

In treating others with a spirit of patience, said Pope Francis, we "look at them... with God's gaze, knowing how to distinguish their faces from their faults."

"Rushing and impatience are enemies of spiritual life," he continued. "God is love, and those who love do not tire, they are not irascible; they do not give ultimatums. God is patient, God knows how to wait."

Patience is sometimes referred to as being "annexed" to the moral virtue of fortitude. In practicing patience, we bear any kind of suffering for a greater good. St. Thomas Aquinas describes patience as a means to "safeguard the good of reason against sorrow, lest reason give way to sorrow" (Sum. II-II, 136, Art. 1).

The virtue of patience is a fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22), and as Christians who have received the Holy Spirit we are called to "be patient in tribulation" (Romans 12:12) and to "preach the message (of Christ)... with great patience" (2 Timothy 4:2).

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration of the Week

Peter and Andrew, James and John – they were not expecting God that day. But there He was, right in front of them, beckoning. God stands before us today, and like the Apostles, we often don't see Him coming. But still, He beckons. Will we follow?

Save-the-Date

Monday and Tuesday, March 2nd and 3rd

St. Peter's will be hosting Fr. Robert Sherry for a two-day mission on the Eucharist.

More information to follow.

33 Days to Eucharistic Glory

*To find out more about this program for Lent,
join us this weekend, Saturday and Sunday,
Jan. 24 and 25 after each Mass in the Parish Hall for an informational meeting.*

33 Days to Eucharistic Glory is an incredible journey that awaits you this Lent—an invitation to participate in a spiritual pilgrimage! This journey will lead you to the essence of what it truly means to be Catholic. This journey will change your life in a most marvelous way. This Lent you may give up something, but I encourage you to step out and take this Eucharistic journey with other parishioners to find Jesus in the Most Holy Eucharist.

We are offering to the St. Peter's community, the opportunity to study Matthew Kelly's book, "33 Days to Eucharistic Glory."

If you were not able to sign up for the 33 Days of Eucharistic Glory this weekend, no problem; just call Laura at the parish office and she will have someone from the team give you a call. You will then be able to choose a time and place that best suits your situation. Each of the 6 study groups will meet one time a week to facilitate how everyone is progressing in the material. It looks like each group will meet at different times and places. So, if you did not sign up you still have a chance.

In Christ, Deacon Mark

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Like the Apostles Peter, Andrew, James and John in today's Gospel, we, too, have been called to help build God's Kingdom on earth. We do this in a particular way by continuing the works of Jesus here on earth. As Pope Leo XIV reminds us in Dilexi Te, “The signs that accompany Jesus' preaching are manifestations of the love and compassion with which God looks upon the sick, the poor and sinners... The Church, if she wants to be Christ's Church, must be... a place where the poor have a privileged place.” Part of the way we bear witness to the inbreaking of God's Kingdom on earth is to put those who are ill and marginalized at the center of our concern. Then the Kingdom of God will be manifest and visible in the world, drawing others to Christ.

SERVE

This week, spend some time researching ways you can work with other Christians to serve the sick and the poor of our world. As we conclude this Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (which ends Jan. 25, 2026), there's no better witness we can offer to the dawn of the Kingdom of God than being “united in the same mind and in the same purpose” (as Paul calls us to be today) in serving those in need.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

SEA OF GALILEE MOMENTS

Mini reflection: Young or old, believer or non-believer, rich or poor: it doesn't matter who we are. It doesn't matter what our life looks like. If we are a human being, if we have a soul, we stand on the shore of a great and powerful sea, a net in our hands and a hunger in our soul.

Young or old, believer or non-believer, rich or poor, healthy or sick: it doesn't matter who we are. It doesn't matter what our life looks like. If we are a human being, if we have a soul, we stand on the shore of a great and powerful sea, a net in our hands and a hunger in our soul.

So what's in the sea? I don't know about yours, but mine is filled with feelings of inadequacy. It's filled with fear and resentment and confusion. It's filled with misplaced pride. It's deep. It's dark. It's well-stocked.

I cast my net, over and over again. What else is there to do? If I draw back a harvest, it can sustain me for days, weeks, maybe even years. The nourishment of the sea can keep away the hunger pangs — for a time. You can survive on fear and resentment and pride if it's all you have. You'll never feel full, and you'll never be strong, but you'll survive on what the world can offer you — so long as you keep coming back to the shore.

This is where Jesus finds us.

If I close my eyes, I can picture the moments exactly, all of them: my Sea of Galilee moments. I could describe them to you — the day, the year, what was happening in my life, what I wanted and what I needed and what gnawing hunger had brought me, once again, limping, crawling back to the shore.

But you wouldn't understand my Sea of Galilee moments, just like I wouldn't understand yours. There is only one who understands, and his is the voice we heard, clear and strong: "Put down the net, and come with me."

SERVING OTHERS BRINGS HAPPINESS AND MENTAL WELL-BEING

Helping others doesn't just make an impact —it literally makes you feel better.

According to research posted in Harvard Health Publishing, when we serve, our brains release endorphins (natural mood boosters), leading to what's called the "helper's high." It reduces stress, improves well-being, and builds mental resilience.

St. Mother Teresa:
 "We cannot all do great things, but we can do small things with great love."

Pope Leo's best quotes for Catholic Youth:

- "God loves us, and evil will not prevail. We are all in God's hands."
- "You are not only the future of the Church, you are the present. Your voices, your ideas, your faith matter right now. And the Church needs you."
- "If you want to change the world, begin by letting God change you."
- "Be intentional with your screen time. Make sure technology serves your life and not the other way around."
- "The Church needs what you have been given to share with all of us. If you want to help the Church prepare for the future, start by being involved today."
- "Remember, AI can never replace the unique gift that you are to the world."
- "Jesus takes nothing away, and He gives you everything. When we give ourselves to Him, we receive far more than we could imagine."
