HEALING

On Tuesday, February 3rd the Church celebrates the feast of St. Blaise, the patron saint of throat diseases. Fr. Joe will be observing the feast day by blessing the throats of those who wish to receive the blessing.

The roles of healing and caring for the sick are common to the history of Christian apostolates and are close to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. In all the sacraments, Jesus Christ—the Good Physician—heals the troubled and ailing soul. The Church seeks to heal wherever there is illness, even illness that can't be seen on the surface. Abortion hurts mother and child alike. No matter the grief and shame someone feels after abortion, the Church is here to show men and women the hope of Christ. Through the Project Rachel initiative, the Church ministers to post-abortive women through counseling and retreats. Learn more at:

33 Days to Eucharistic Glory

33 Days to Eucharistic Glory is an incredible journey that awaits you this Lent—an invitation to participate in a spiritual pilgrimage!

This journey will lead you to the essence of what it truly means to be Catholic. This journey will change your life in a most marvelous way. This Lent you may give up something, but I encourage you to step out and take this Eucharistic journey with other parishioners to find Jesus in the Most Holy Eucharist.

We are offering to the St. Peter's community, the opportunity to study Matthew Kelly's book, "33 Days to Eucharistic Glory."

If you were not able to sign up for the 33 Days of Eucharistic Glory this weekend, no problem; just call Laura at the parish office and she will have someone from the team give you a call. You will then be able to choose a time and place that best suits your situation. Each of the 6 study groups will meet one time a week to facilitate how everyone is progressing in the material. It looks like each group will meet at different times and places. So, if you did not sign up you still have a chance.

In Christ, Deacon Mark

VIRTUES, EXPLAINED KINDNESS

The quality of "Kindness" is often equated with politeness—but real, virtuous kindness is so much more. Virtuous Kindness is a way of seeing others through the eyes of God, who has adopted us as His own.

God is polite—God is kind, and His kindness is abundantly evident in all of creation. It was suspicion of this divine kindness that precipitated the fall of Adam and Eve (CCC. 214), and it was this unfailing kindness that facilitated our own adoption as God's children, conformed to the image of His Son (CCC. 257).

Also known as benevolence or beneficence and derived from the theological virtue of charity, kindness is a fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22) and is a central theme in the famous parable of the Good Samaritan. In practicing kindness and seeking the good of another without prejudice or condition, the Samaritan reflects God's own plan of loving kindness for us.

WHAT STAYS THE SAME

Mini reflection: How similar we all are in sin. How similar we all are in potential. How different we look to the world. And yet, how wondrous it is that we are all offered the same hope: “Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in Heaven.”

Somewhere, there is a monk whose life is very quiet and who devotes long hours to prayer.

And somewhere there is a nun, cloistered in a life of contemplation, who speaks very little except to God.

Somewhere, there is a father whose days are filled with noise, who hasn’t finished a Rosary in years because he keeps falling asleep. Somewhere there is a mother whose voice is weak with giving direction and offering counsel.

Somewhere, there is a teenage girl with much to say, but few people to listen—fewer, at least, than she would like.

Somewhere there is a woman who holds a positive pregnancy test in one hand and a phone in the other, and somewhere there is a man on the other end of that phone who waits for her to speak.

In the Beatitudes, Jesus utilizes a literary device called anaphora. Both as a reader and a writer, I love anaphora. It’s a clean, unfussy way to communicate a point. By repeating the same word or phrase at the beginning of successive clauses, you’re basically saying the same thing over and over again, just a little bit differently each time. Those small differences tease at your audience’s brain, gently highlighting the consistencies.

Discipleship is a lot like anaphora. It’s the differences—those little aberrations from person to person, life to life—that so beautifully illustrate what remains the same across the broad spectrum of what it means to live out the Beatitudes.

Me. You. The monk. The nun. The father. The mother. The lonely girl. The man and woman who decided their own future without realizing it. How similar we all are in sin. How similar we all are in potential. How different we look to the world.

And yet, how wondrous it is that we are all offered the same hope: “Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in Heaven.”
